How a Bright Little Girl's Life Was Saved.

A Terrible Sufferer From St. Vitus Dance—Could Not Feed Herself and Had to be Closely Watched—A Public Acknowledgment by Her Grateful Parents.

From the Shelburne Economist.

Many of the readers of the Economist have doubtless been impressed to a certain extent by the reports of miraculous cures effected in various parts of the country by the intelligent use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for pale people...

One day last week the reporter waited upon Mr. and Mrs. John Lindsay at their home, lot 31, con. 1, e. h. s., township of Mono, and listened to the words of grateful acknowledgment which fell from their lips while describing the terrible malady from which one of their children had been suffering...

Within the past fourteen months Bishop Horstman, of Cleveland, Ohio, has confirmed 30,000 born Catholics and 900 converts within a territory embracing less than one-third of the state of Ohio.

A letter has been received from the Czar in response to an autograph letter written to His Majesty by the Pope. The Czar promises that peace shall be observed toward Catholics throughout the Russian empire.

The New York Tribune says that Catholicism is spreading rapidly in the three Scandinavian kingdoms, which have been regarded ever since the days of King Gustavus of Sweden as the stronghold of Protestantism.

The Monastery of the Good Shepherd at Troy, N. Y., has received from the World's Fair commissioners a gold medal for being a model reformatory.

Money and fame are the two things that men work hardest for and after death one is worth to them about as much as the other.

Unbelief is the withering winter of the soul. It darkens the sky of hope, robs life of its highest consolations, and shrouds the tomb with impenetrable glooms. It is a crime to humanity to spread such a blight.

The Holy Father has issued a letter to the members of the Spanish association called the Apostolate of the Press granting indulgences and his benediction to all the members who will aid it, either personally or otherwise.

The object of the society, instituted at Madrid two years ago, is to spread gratuitously amongst the people moral and religious literature, and thus to recall the mind to the ancient purity of manners.

This design is recognized as sound and praiseworthy at the Vatican, and thoroughly in keeping with the necessities of the age. When falsehood and immorality are in the ascendant Catholics should join in defending the truth by every means put in their power by the printing press.

CATHOLIC NOTES.

Pope Leo XIII. is not alarmed at the revolutionary agitation in Italy and Sicily, knowing it is directed against the Government's maladministration of public affairs, not against the Vatican.

It is estimated that the Catholics of New England have 815 churches, $26,875,005 of property, and 1,904,650 communicants, or 21 per cent of the population.

A big contest is on foot in Cincinnati, consisting of an effort announced to be made to compel County Auditor Magarity, of that city, to place over $2,000,000 worth of Catholic Church property on the tax duplicate for this year. It is alleged by complainant that this property, assessed in 1890, has been unlawfully exempted.

Rev. Father Cassidy of Michigan City, died at St. Joseph's Hospital, St. Paul, on Saturday night, February 10. He had been ill at the hospital for some time before his death and was 65 years of age.

An obedience to the simple laws of hygiene and the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla will enable the most delicate man or sickly woman to pass in ease and safety from the icy atmosphere of February to the warm, moist days of April. It is the best of spring medicine.

A professor at the University of Michigan analyzed and experimented with a sample of Grand Forks drinking water and discovered that it killed white rats in twelve hours.

The first iron bridge ever erected in the world, and which is in constant use at the present time, spans a little river in the county of Salop, on the railroad leading from Shrewsbury to Worcester, England. It was built in 1778.

"I'm afraid Johnny," said the Sunday school teacher, rather severely, "that I will never meet you in heaven."

"Why? What have you been doing?" was the quick response.

A FAIR SPECIMEN.

A few weeks ago a forlorn, whiskey-soaked specimen of humanity drifted into our office. He was in an advanced state of intoxication. He wanted a dime—for more whiskey, we suppose, and when we refused to give him the money he wanted to fight. Later on in the day the police took charge of him and he retired to the seclusion of the "cooler" for a term. He has since regained his liberty, and the last we heard of him he was canvassing various citizens to become members of the P. P. A. He asked a gentleman in the city to become a member of the dark-lantern society one day this week and was promptly told that respectable men had no use for the P. P. A.—it was too much like the Orange society, and that he had no use for it. This man is a "bum" of the hardest kind, yet seemingly he must be one of the P. P. A.'s choicest representatives. We are learning all about this P. P. A.—slowly, it is true—but there will be a surprise some day. In the meantime, we congratulate them on this particular member.

DEAR SIR—Your Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are the best medicine for rheumatism that I have ever used. Last spring I was troubled greatly with it in my leg; I used one box of Morse's Pills, and was cured.
