

a) Timing and effectiveness: 'comprehensivism' vs. 'incrementalism'
b) The limits of time, and the promise of time limits	30
c) Carrots, sticks, and carrot sticks	32
i) Sanctions and force
ii) Positive inducements and constructive engagement	33
 IV. Collateral Damage	 36
1. Humanitarian impact in target states
a) Humanitarian impact
b) Political implications for senders	38
c) Sanctions and the practice of humanitarian relief	39
d) The Security Council and the politics of humanitarianism	42
i) Framing and administration of exemptions
ii) Humanitarian assessment and review	44
iii) Obstacles to reform	46
2. Compensating third states: The problem of Article 50	47
 V. Administering and Enforcing UN Sanctions	 49
1. Strategic planning
2. Enhancing national-level capacity	51
3. Monitoring and enforcement
4. Coordination and communication	53
5. The politics of reform	