

Bennett, Right Hon. R. B. (Leader of the Opposition)

Address in reply, 34. Government representative of only 35 out of every 100 electors; compulsory voting in Australia, 35; improvements in election methods in England and France; provinces represented in parliament by only one party; war appeals made in province of Quebec during election; Mr. Lapointe on united front from Quebec, 36; difficulties in formation of cabinet; "the little corporal from Sorel"; return of Mr. Dunning and improved fitness as Minister of Finance; Mr. Crerar and the grain exchange, 37; trade agreements with United States and Japan; reference in speech from the throne to restoration of responsible government; powers conferred by parliament on the executive, 38; statement of prime minister on election night; death of His late Majesty King George V; Minister of Justice on Doctor Riddell and oil sanctions, 39; position of Canada as member of League of Nations on sanctions against Italy, 40; seriousness of unemployment situation; appointment of unemployment and social insurance commission by late government; mention in speech from the throne of new national employment commission, 41; inquiry into conditions in relief camps; work of Frontier college; inquiry into textiles industry, 42; judgment of Lord Haldane on right of dominion to inquire into one industry in one province; state interference in industry; loss of six days without pay for employees of Simpson Company in Toronto; investigation into coal monopoly, 43; reference to Supreme Court of Canada as to validity of statutes enacted last parliament; Lord Loreburn on references of hypothetical cases; preservation by provinces of right of appeal, 44; the Lemieux act; referring to courts matters that should be tested in the light of facts; Canada Temperance Act and Russell v. The Queen; removal from office of members of Canadian wheat board, 45; value of average wheat crop in Alberta; lessening of our wheat sales abroad; reservoirs of unsold wheat in 1930 and 1935; Broomhall's figures as to Russian wheat crop, 46; comparison of grain production and marketing for five years 1925 to 1930 and 1930 to 1935; charges of sales resistance in British grain market, 47; amount of wheat taken over from co-operative organizations and rise in price of Argentine wheat, 48; quotations for October wheat on grain exchanges, 49; stabilization operations of wheat board; duties placed on wheat by European countries; cost of wheat bonus in Australia; supposed antagonism towards Canadian wheat board and order in council of December 3, 1935, 50; telegram from Mr. McFarland and associates to Minister of Trade and Commerce, 51; charges of definite sales resistance in consequence of personnel of board; connection of Mr. James Murray with Alberta Pacific Grain Company; selling Canadian wheat at less than price fixed, 52; conference between dominion and provinces, 53; difficulties with provinces, and procedure necessary to effect constitutional amendments; repudiation by Ontario government of Beauharnois power contracts, 54; necessity for protection of Canada against dumping of goods from other countries; improved trade conditions at end of 1935; shift of population from country to cities and protection of our industrial structure; imposition of dumping duties against Great Britain and exchange values, 55; trade agreements with Japan and United States; improvement in our trade balance with United States and rise of Canadian dollar to par value; trade proposals to United States under former government, and correspondence in November, 1934; the basis for negotiation of present trade agreement, 56-59; statement of Postmaster General during election campaign that President of United States would not negotiate with Bennett government, 60; disadvantages to Canadian interests through trade agreement with United States, 61; Liberal policies concerned with events of the day and not with the implications of their acts, 61; the railway situation and return of natural resources to western provinces, 62; influence of United

Bennett, Right Hon. R. B.—Con.

Address in reply—Con.