AUXILIARY AIR FIELDS, NORTH BAY AND EARLTON, ONT.

Question No. 1,024—Mr. Peters:

1. What plans is the government making for the immediate use or disposal of the former auxiliary fields to the air bases at North Bay and Earlton, Ontario?

2. Is it the intention of the government to dispose of these auxiliary fields and, if not, does the government intend to maintain the cleared landing field and control the weeds of these fields?

3. If it is the intention of the government to dispose of these fields, will they be disposed of by public tender?

Answer: 1. No plans are being made for the use of the former auxiliary fields to the air bases at North Bay and Earlton.

[Mr. Chatterton.]

2. It is the intention of the government to dispose of these auxiliary fields and they are no longer maintained as aerodromes.

3. Land provided by the province of Ontario for aerodrome purposes is being returned to the province. Land purchased for aerodrome purposes is being disposed of by public tender.
