

friend from Oshawa-Whitby, at least he could accept something along the lines suggested by the hon. member for Kenora-Rainy River.

• (9:20 p.m.)

I do not know whether the minister was pointing with his thumb to the hon. member for Kenora-Rainy River, whether he was hitch-hiking to Banff or whether he wanted to go the men's restroom; but whatever it is, I wish he would stand up and tell us that something along the line we have suggested has penetrated to him and that he really is in sympathy with us.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Laniel): Is the House ready for the question?

Some hon. Members: Question.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Laniel): The question is on amendment No. 4 in the name of the hon. member for Oshawa-Whitby (Mr. Broadbent). All those in favour of the motion will please say yea.

Some hon. Members: Yea.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Laniel): All those opposed will please say nay.

Some hon. Members: Nay.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Laniel): In my opinion the nays have it.

And more than five members having risen:

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Laniel): Call in the members.

The House divided on motion No. 4 (Mr. Broadbent) which was negated on the following division:

Mr. Deputy Speaker: I declare the amendment lost.

Hon. Jean-Luc Pepin (Minister of Industry, Trade and Commerce) moved that Bill C-262, to support employment in Canada by mitigating the disruptive effect on Canadian industry of the imposition of foreign import surtaxes or other actions of a like effect, as reported (with amendments) from the Standing Committee on Finance, Trade and Economic Affairs, be concurred in.

Motion agreed to.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: When shall the said bill be read the third time? By leave, now?

Some hon. Members: Next sitting.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: At the next sitting of this House.
