Madam Deputy Speaker: I declare the motion lost.

[Translation]

M. Bob Kilger (Stormont—Dundas): Madam Speaker, on a point of order.

Madam Deputy Speaker: The hon. member for Stormont—Dundas (Mr. Kilger), on a point of order.

Mr. Kilger: Madam Speaker, I was late, and I simply wanted to inform you that if I had been in my place, I would have voted with my party in favour of the bill.

PETITIONSABORTION

Hon. David MacDonald (Rosedale): Madam Speaker, I am pleased to present this petition signed by over 1,300 people calling upon Parliament to recognize that abortion is a medical decision to be made by a woman in consultation with her physician and does not belong in criminal law, and to ensure good access to this health service in every province.

, GOODS AND SERVICES TAX

Mr. Fred J. Mifflin (Bonavista—Trinity—Conception): Madam Speaker, I have the privilege to rise and present a petition from 90 of my constituents in Gambo, New Chelsea and Trinity Bay. These people are very upset with the goods and services tax. They are worried about the 31 taxes that have been imposed in the last six years and they are concerned about what this 7 per cent tax is going to do to them. They are also worried about the burden on small business and they are worried, with unemployment and the fisheries the way they are, that this is another nail in their economic coffin.

Your petitioners humbly pray and call upon Parliament to reject the proposed goods and services tax.

VETERANS' BENEFITS

Mr. Russell MacLellan (Cape Breton—The Sydneys): Madam Speaker, I have the honour to table a petition from members and friends of Branch 8 of the Royal Canadian Legion in Sydney Mines and the Army, Navy
