

November 9, 1927.

Reverend John J. McAlpine,
224 E. Jefferson Street,
Sandusky, Ohio.

Dear Mr. McAlpine:-

I am very pleased to have your letter of October 26th. and I acknowledge with many thanks your kindness in doing this service for McGill.

I have forwarded to you under separate cover copy of the latest University Calendar and I have given your new address to the Graduates' Society.

McGill has just instituted a Master's degree in the Philosophy of Religion, of which you will find the details under Courses for Y.M.C.A. Secretaries. The fee for the graduate school is nominal - $50. - but it would be necessary for you to carry out the regulations of the graduate school with regard to attendance. Should the matter interest you I suggest that you write direct to Dr. E.M. Best, 740 University Street, Montreal.

Dean Bovey of the Faculty of Applied Science was my father and I am very much interested in hearing of your recollections. I have been at McGill for some four years as Assistant to the Principal, General Sir Arthur W. Currie, and it has been a great pleasure to meet and hear from so many people who were friends of my father.

Yours faithfully,

Wilfrid Bovey.
