

November
Tenth
1921.

John Lane, Esq.,
C/o. The John Lane Publishing Co.,

New York, N.Y.

Dear Sir:-

This is to inform you that the Finance Committee of the Board of Governors at their meeting to-day approved my recommendations to them re Macmillan's History of McGill.

They will take the 1500 copies at $2.00 per copy, and we shall pay the customs charges. I note that, according to your letter of November 8th, you agree to pay the express rate.

It is to be understood that this $2.00 per copy is $2.00 Canadian money. I may say that I want that to be quite clear, because I notice in your letter of November 8th you mention that you will expect to receive 1,000 American dollars on the 25th instant. The balance of the money is to be paid $1,000 January 1st and the remainder on March 1st, 1922. There is no objection to sending you the equivalent of $1,000 American currency on November 25th next. The $1,000 to be sent you January 1st, 1922 will be $1,000. in Canadian currency.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.
