Dear Mr. Hodgins:

By timetable oversight, you will see that you drop three plus three periods a week with second year Prose Fiction, and take on two periods with Freshman. I drop two and take on three.

I wonder whether in return you will take one period with first year diploma? That will be a total of three Freshmen, two second year Diploma, one first year Diploma -- six periods.

There is a mistake in giving second year Diploma four periods, so one is crossed out.

May I know soon.

(Sgd) BRUNT.
