

CONTENTS

CHAPTER I

WHY I BECAME A MISSIONARY - - - - -	PAGE 9
-------------------------------------	-----------

The Author's Birth and Birth-place—Memories of his Mother—Attends a Congregational Sunday School—Obstacles in the Way of his Early Education—His Father's Attitude towards Tithes—The Author moves into the Parish of Wisbech St. Mary—He becomes a Member of the Church of England—Influence of the Thirty-nine Articles—His Religious Difficulties—Becomes a Member of the Choir and Bible Class—Visits the Sick—Apprenticeship to Farming—Skill in Ploughing—Confirmation—Shows a Bent for Preaching—Composes Sermons to the Heathen as he Ploughs—Decides to take Holy Orders—Studies for the Ministry under the Rev. L. Saunders.

CHAPTER II

HOW I BECAME A MISSIONARY - - - - -	19
-------------------------------------	----

The Annual C.M.S. Sermon at Wisbech St. Mary—Its Effect upon the Author—Negotiations opened with the C.M.S.—The Author is examined by Mr. Venn—Accepted by C.M.S. Committee—At first intended for Service at Zanzibar—Enters the Training Institution at Reading—Testimonial from