

Argos v. Tigers Today at Stadium; Kick-Off 2.15

BOTH TEAMS READY FOR CRUCIAL RUGBY STRUGGLE THIS AFTERNOON

Even Money Will Rule When Argonauts and Tigers Meet to Play Off the Tie for Big Four Championship.

Argos and Tigers are both ready for their crucial struggle this afternoon at the stadium. The Argonauts' work yesterday consisted of light running and at the finish the coaches smiled broadly. Knight is at top form. Burke is fit and ready to finish the game. From the back, however, are out of it. Holmes and Genter will not be in uniform. E. Smith, O'Connor and Block are starting on the line with Lawson in reserve. From the forwards will go back with Duke taking if needed, any moment. Quarterback Mills is always on the job. The scrummen and the rest of the wings are the all-around regulars. Other players who will be on the side-line are Vurray, Lepper, Simpson, Smith, Lebrack, McDonald and Duff.

Eleven thousand is the estimated attendance including 500 from Hamilton. The gates at Varsity will open at 1 o'clock. All the reserved seats are sold, and three sections in the centre of the bleachers. The rest of the bleachers with standing room will be sold at 50c, and the big stadium can hold 15,000.

Betting around town is at even money, though from Hamilton say that they are looking for odds with the Tigers. The Varsity field is in splendid shape. Varsity exercises yesterday consisted of a line-up with the second, Cassella, Lindley and Lindsay were out, and Dr. Mac Grayford is starting on the line. It is expected that this trio will be in perfect form for the final. Capt. Charlie Gage will go back with Duke taking if needed, any moment. Quarterback Mills is always on the job. The scrummen and the rest of the wings are the all-around regulars. Other players who will be on the side-line are Vurray, Lepper, Simpson, Smith, Lebrack, McDonald and Duff.

Argonauts' wing line is doubly strong to enter the battle today. Frank Knight is in his right mood, and he can be counted on to make a great game. He stands up today it will be a great battle. It promises to be the biggest crowd that ever viewed a football struggle on a Canadian field. War times indeed; every rush seat today. If you have not got a ticket be at the stadium early. The game will start at 2:15 sharp, and will be over by 4:30. It is expected that it will be a great game. It promises to be the biggest crowd that ever viewed a football struggle on a Canadian field. ### Four Games of Rugby Jammed into Eight Days

Starting today a jam of championship rugby will be worked into eight days, possibly all of it in Toronto. First comes the Argos-Tiger clash today, then the St. Michael's-College-Tiger II, intermediate Canadian final at Varsity Tuesday. Should Argos win this afternoon the Canadian senior semi-final will be at Rosedale Wednesday, and the following Saturday brings Varsity and Hamilton H.C. Tigers or Argonauts, the last-named together at Varsity Stadium.

Hamilton Herald: The substituting of Tom Vurray for Ralph Wigle will in all probability be the only change in the Tigers line-up, although there is a slight chance that "Tou" Leckie will be shoved into the back. Norm Clark's injured hand is by no means better, but it will be in better shape than last weekend, and he will be just that much more effective. Wilson, Stuart and Wren are going at top speed, and despite the bulk of the Argos line should be able to make some sort of an impression. Wilson is put to a severe test, but he is expected to make some gains of big dimensions, and the same feeling will apply to the other wings on Harry Glassford and Russell Thompson will again look to be paid to Frank Knight and "Mac" Murray. If the Argos' speedy pair can be prevented from getting down the field, then the Tiger backs will have plenty of chance to get in the runs that have made them famous.

Tigers will leave over the C.P.R. at 12:30, taking down a large number of the local followers. Another C.P.R. train for it is generally conceded that the minutes later. The G.E.R. will also run a special, carrying the Rooters' Club, and if the weather is anything like that of the past week Hamilton should send down a mighty representation. It will be a great rainy day, with a tiger victory all that is needed to make Hamilton well pleased with herself. Hamilton Spectator: Not only will Frank Hinkley, the Yale University player, be in the Argos-Tiger struggle at Varsity Stadium on Saturday, but Talbot also will be on the job. Ralph C. Ripley of the Hamilton Argonauts is expected to be in the game. Seats have been reserved for the American experts, while touching courtesies are also being extended to them.

Varsity Not So Strong As Argonauts or Tigers

From The Varsity. The field at Varsity Stadium is in excellent condition for the Argos game tomorrow, and the weatherman promises a bright, clear day. A strong student body will be in attendance at the Varsity relative merits of both teams. It is generally conceded that the Argos will have the edge in the final. Hamilton, however, are apt to do the unexpected, and spring some surprise as the Argos did a few years ago.

The students as a whole are not very optimistic about the final game here at Varsity. It seems to be the feeling that Varsity is not as strong as in former years, while Argos and Tigers have greatly improved their teams by an infiltration of college and American players. Varsity, once the home of their glory, are playing, has retrograded into a hazy and hazy organization. The prediction is that the Argos will win. The Argos' team was clever enough to win from the Argos, but they are not playing as well as they did last year. The Argos' team was clever enough to win from the Argos, but they are not playing as well as they did last year.

All the team were out with the exception of Lindsay, Adelaar and Cassella. Lindsay has sprained his knee, and the coaches consider it will be more beneficial to him if he rest up for a few days. Cassella fractured a small bone in his arm in the McGill game, and is carrying it around. Adelaar, who has been defaulted by the Ontario open play, is expected to be in the game. The Argos' team was clever enough to win from the Argos, but they are not playing as well as they did last year.

Could registered his third try in the football world this week when Captain Dave McGill of the O.A.C. Ontario team was married to Miss Louise Wilton. Jack Lewis, star outside wing of the champion McGill team, of the Ontario team, was married yesterday afternoon to Miss Muriel Robertson of Montreal. Art Hunter, manager of the Argos, took the matrimonial plunge early in the week.

The winners of the Quebec and Inter-collegiate Rugby Unions of junior series have defaulted to Quebec O.A.C. Ontario winners. The Argos will play the Dominion final at the winners of the Western University V. Dundas game at Woodstock today.

"Silent Frank" Hinkley, the Yale University coach, who was responsible for the introduction of Canadian open play into American College Rugby, will likely be a spectator at the Argos-Tiger game today. Hinkley some time ago decided to take in some of the Canadian games, and word has been received that he is endeavoring to make arrangements to visit Toronto.

A fair-sized delegation of Ottawa fans left for Toronto last night with bank pick Argos to win the Dominion championship. At the meeting of the directors of the McGill council, held in the union last night, Frank Shaughnessy, who has coached the McGill team for the past three years, accepted terms for another year. Lorne Montgomery was elected captain for next year.

Hamilton R.C. line-up against the inter-provincial champions next Wednesday will be: flying wing, Fieley; backs, McNelly, Smith and McSweeney; scrummen, Harper; scrummen, Gerard, McCarthy and Ashbaugh; inside wings, Ross Craig and Hayes; middle wings, Wren and Clark; outside wings, Fisher and Gatenby.

Several Hard and Interesting Bouts on Second Night of Boxing Tournament.

There were several hard and interesting contests on second night of the Ontario boxing tournament in the Arena. The first surprise was T. Tootel's decisive victory over F. Gallagher in the 125-lb. class. The winner analyzed the cleverest footwork imaginable and reached the law four times with right jolts, twice in the second round, when Gallagher was given the minute's rest. Tootel stalled starting the third until Gallagher could get his feet under him. There were fourteen bouts altogether. Summary:
