"The Guelph Carriage Goods Company" give notice of application for charter. The proposed company will have a capital of $50,000 in fifty dollar shares, and the first directors will be James Massie, John B. Armstrong, and Robert Torrance.

Notice is also given that the "George Fair Manufacturing Co." will apply for a charter. This concern will assume the Foundry and Implement business heretofore carried on by George Fair & Co., at Millbrook. Capital to be $30,000, in $100 shares.

The gentlemen appointed by the Government to make a valuation of the lands at Lachine required for canal improvements have made their report. A few small lots occupied for business purposes by the owners were arranged for at 20 to 25 cents a foot. These were each about 100 feet deep. Those who held a few acres back from the principal thoroughfare were offered from 1 1/2 to 3 cents a foot, but refused it. Those who bought large tracts of land in that vicinity for speculative purposes are likely to be rather disappointed, as the Government will not be coaxed into paying fancy prices, or encouraging such a class of business at the expense of the community. It is truly unfortunate that men who by years of industry in their respective callings have acquired comparative independence and comfort for themselves and families, should have been led in some evil hour to risk it all in such uncertain investments. These men, however, have nobody to blame but themselves, but it seems somewhat like the usual fate said to be attendant upon a traffic which has led so many on the road to ruin.
