Bernstorff's Emissary Impressed Seriousness of Situation at Conference.

BERLIN, via London, June 27.—It is learned that Dr. Anton Meyer-Gerhard's report to the officials charged with drafting the German answer to the American note indicated the serious nature of the situation.

Rev. Geo. H. Williams of Centenary Church Will Go to

Dr. Meyer-Gerhard was sent to Berlin y the German ambassador at Washing-on for the purpose of indicating to the erman Government the real attitude of German Government the real attitude of the American Government and people. He reported that the sentiment in the United States had been growing somewhat more favorable from the German viewpoint, and particularly more favorable regarding the prohibition of the export of munitions of war to the allies. The sinking of the Lusitania, however, undid all this. The state of feeling in the United States at the present time, he explained, was such that it would not be satisfied with unnecessary delay in the answer, nor with an answer which in the answer, nor with an answer which appeared to be evasive or failed to meet the issue squarely.

"And this reminds me of the fighting on land. The German infantry will not fight the British. It is not the equal, the men are not as courageous when the real test comes. Time and again this has been shown, so I say that when the munitions of the allies' troops are superior to those of the Germans, the end of the war will be in sight. And, I may add, that Lloyd George is bringing about this condition with the greatest possible speed and employing all the resources at hand. His management of this department is as effective as that of Sir John French at the head of the force in France."

No Fear for Russia.

"A magazine article says that Lord Kitchener really has amassed an army of 4,000,000, while complaining that he could not muster more than 1,000,00K0," Mr. Moore was reminded.

"That is not so. I am not prepared to say how large the army is, no more than I am to tell where headquarters are. The army is magnificent. It is ample for the time, and when all its needs have been supplied it will be a victorious army."

Tragedy One Year Ago Today Gave Pretext That Plunged Eleven Nations Into War

One year ago today the news was pubished of the assassination at Sarajevo, Bosnia, of Archduke Francis Ferdinand.

Bosnia, of Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir to the throne of Austro-Hungary, and the Archduchess. The murders were committed by Garvio Prinzip, as an act of protest against Austria's treatment of the Slays.

Austria-Hungary accused Serbia of shielding the conspirators who had plotted the crime, and on July 28, sent an ultimatum to Serbia demanding the arrest and punishment of these alleged conspirators.

This ultimatum contained provisions to which Serbia could not yield and maintain her dignity as a nation. She accepted all of Austria's terms except those which would have degraded her. Austria chose to interpret Serbia's reply as unsatisfactory and mobilized her army.

"Big money is not made because of the law, but in spite of it. It is made by men who can afford to hire big lawyers to show them how to break the law. I went to jail for something I did not do. When I came out, the police wouldn't let me earn an honest living. Well, now I am making more than a living dishonestly—and my lawyer is showing me how to do it." This is one of the remarkable speeches of Mary Turner, the heroine in "Within the Law," which the Robins Players will present at the Alexandra Theatre this week. It is a big gripping play of life today. It is strong in its dramatic intensity, true in its mirroring of human nature, bristling with thrills. suspense and surprises: 'appealing in heart interest, rich in comedy, wonderful and enduring in the lessons of life and nature that it teaches. There will be a special matinee on Thursday, Dominion Day.

"WOMAN AGAINST WOMAN" -

An imposing revival of "Woman Against Woman" will be given by the Phillips-Shaw Company at the Grand Opera House all this week. This play contains possibly the most powerful human story ever written, and since its original production by Effic Ellsler a quarter of a century ago its popularity has never waned, and it was then, as it has proved to be ever since, one of the greatest dramatic triumphs the stage has ever known. The title of the play alone aptly describes the story, for it is in fact, an affair of woman against woman, one of whom is most happily married to a worthy man, and the other woman in the case is madly infatuated with the husband. It will be given a first-class scenic equipment, and the company has been exceptionally well cast. Besides the regular bargain matinee on Wednesday and Saturday a special holiday matinee will be given on Thursday, Dominion Day.

"THE VOLUNTEER ORGANIST." At the request of many patrons the Phillips-Shaw Company will present next week "She Volunteer Organist," the famous New England drama which was a favorite all over the country 15 years ago.
