QUEBEC CENTRAL RAILWAY

An Outline of its Scenery & Connections.

THE QUEBEC CENTRAL RAILWAY may properly be termed the New Short Line and Favorite Summer Travel Route ; no other route leads the tourist and traveller to so many delightful summer resorts, and certainly none other combines such varied and picturesque scenery. The lakes and beautiful rivers of the Eastern Townships, the no less beautiful streams, lakes and mountains of Vermont, and that gem of summer resorts, Newport, are upon the direct line of travel, while in connection with the same line the pleasure and health seeker may find the most delightful routes to Boston, New York, Portland, all White Mountain Resorts, Lake Champlain, Lake George, Saratoga, &c., &c. Our list of tours will be found to embrace a great variety of desirable routes, and to include among the points to be visited all the great summer resorts of New England, New York and Canada.

DESCRIPTION OF THE ROUTE.

Leaving Quebec by the Quebec and Levis Ferry we cross to Point Levis, where the station of the Quebec Central Railway is situated. From Point Levis the traveller finds himself running along the shores of the beautiful St. Lawrence River. From the train a fine view is obtained of Quebec, the Dufferin Terrace and the imposing bluff on
