

SEC. 6. No Indians or other persons of color shall be eligible for membership in the clubs of this Association.

RULE V.

FIELD-CAPTAINS.

SEC. 1. Captains to superintend the play shall be appointed by each side previous to the commencement of a match. They shall be members of the club by which they are appointed, and no others. They may or may not be players in the match, but shall be under the jurisdiction of the referee.

SEC. 2. Captains who are non-players shall not carry a lacrosse, nor shall they be dressed in lacrosse uniform, nor shall they in any manner obstruct the play or interfere with any opponent during the match.

SEC. 3. They alone shall be the representatives of their respective teams in all disputes, in which they each may be assisted by one player whom they may select.

SEC. 4. They shall select referee and umpires, as laid down in these rules, and toss for choice of goals; and none other than either of the said captains or the referee shall be allowed to claim "foul" during the match. The captains shall report infringements of the laws during a match to the referee.

SEC. 5. Before the commencement of a match, each captain shall furnish the referee with a full and correct list of his thirteen, and a declaration that they are all bona fide members in good standing of the club they represent, and of no other, as provided for in Section 1, Rule IV. They shall also define the bounds of the playing field and report same to the referee.

SEC. 6. It shall be prohibitory for any player to discuss any question with the referee on the field unless requested by that official to do so. Any player violating this rule shall be warned by the referee to desist; failing to do so, he may be ruled off for the game (not match). And furthermore, should said
