

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY STEAMERS, PRINCESS VICTORIA AND EMPRESS OF CHINA

Princess Victoria makes daily round trips between Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle during the summer months, and is unquestionably the fastest steamer plying the inland waters of the North American Continent. Empress of China, with her sister ships, Empress of Japan and Empress of India, are the Greyhounds of the Pacific, and are the best equipped steamers plying between the Occident and Orient.