

CONTENTS

xi

CHAPTER VIII

THE ROMAN OCCUPATION OF BRITAIN—continued

The Roman villa—Hypocausts—Tesselated pavements—Chedworth Villa—Mines—Method of burial—The Roman Wall—Nature of the Roman Occupation . . . . . Pp. 155-170

CHAPTER IX

THE SAXON OCCUPATION

The Christian Church in Britain—Intermixture of Races—Saxon
Earthworks—Relation to subsequent Norman Castles—Offa's Dyke—Methods of burial—Weapons and other objects found in Graves—Art—Church architecture . . . . . Pp. 171-186

CHAPTER X

TRIBAL AND VILLAGE COMMUNITIES

The Tribal Community—Its members—The strangers living with it—The Chieftain—His house—The village community—The Hall—Evolution of the Manor-house—The Lord of the Manor—
How a Manor was formed—The inhabitants of the Village—
The land around it—Its allotment—The Manor of Westminster at the Conquest—The island of Heisgeier . . . . . Pp. 187-206

CHAPTER XI

SOME TRACES OF THE PAST RACES OF BRITAIN

Traces in Language—Physical characteristics—Names of Places.
Pp. 207-219