It is a well-known fact that the York Township men strongly favor a different route, and one running a quarter of a mile or more to the east, but the terminus of which is the same as the straight cut thru the cometery.

Another thing is that the Town of North Toronto agreed to go ahead with the work this fall. It looks now as the they would not be able to carry out this part of the agreement, and there the matter rests at the present time.

Council turned down the request of Mr. Bode, who stated he represented the city in an effort to get permission to instal an isolation hospital on the Benjamin Mulholland farm on concession 3, West York, or, in other words, Dufferin-street. Mr. Bode stated that the farm comained seventy-five acres, that there was little objection, and that the city would not approach the township after once being thrown down. It did not take the members work dome by the order. The program down. It did not take the members long to make up their mind, and no isolation hospital will be planted on Dufferin-street, in York Township, while a majority of the present council hold down their present fob.

They closed up the James-street question satisfactority and dealt with a number of other railway and general matters.
