Glaring Injustice.

The speaker pointed out many glaring injustices committed by the railway companies, apparently without check from the government or the railway commission. Enter a railway train in Canada and you find sitting side by side a Canadian subject and an American citizen, one paying three cents and three and one-third cents a mile, the other two cents, a mile. Is that a proper condition of affairs to exist? The farmer who lives five miles from Toronto on the C.P.R. and buys some tile forty miles from Toronto, at a point on the G.T.R., is charged local rates and terminal charges by both lines. Public ownership would solve many of these anomalies.

He favored putting the sleeping car companies and the telegraph companies under the railway commission. The Pullman charges were exorbitant and the charge for an upper berth should be less than for a lower.

The situation at North Bay illustrated the need of government control over telegraph companies. The C.P.R. and ed the need of government control over telegraph companies. The C.P.R. and the G.N.W. refused to join their wires with the state-owned line along the T. & N. O. They joined hands in an effort to discredit the provincial line. Hundreds of important messages between Cobalt and Toronto, Montreal and New York, were held up at North Bay and delayed for hours.

Two Cent Fares.

Mr. Maclean then discussed the amendment providing for the two-cent fare. The C.P.R. and the G.T.R. were making enormous earnings and paying making enormous earnings and paying high dividends on enormously watered stock. He was not frightened by the cry that lowering passenger fares would increase freight rates. Nothing of the kind had happened in New York, New England, Michigan or Ohio. He assur-

"That is the kind of treatment these great railways can give to the people of Canada. That is the kind of treatment I wish to see parliament abolish, and for that reason I wish to see parliament every year have a special com-mission dealing with this subject, and I think we will have it every year after this, dealing with these grievances and forcing these companies to give lief. But we must not only make the law, but we must enforce it."

Stomach Sufferers Squander Millions

IN SEARCH OF RELIEF

The word is full of disordered stomachs and 90 per cent of the money spent upon physicians and drugs goes in an attempt to cure the stomach.

People are made to believe that in order to gain health they must doctor machs and use cathartics. So the doctor gets his fee for the stom treatment and the druggist for the physic, until the savings of a lifetime are exhausted and yet no cure. Let's be reasonable.

The sick stomach is in every case the result of over-eating, hurried mas-tication and improper choice of foods. The mucous lining all the way down the food tract loses its sensitiveness, and when food is forced down the muscles fall to respond. They do not churn the food as they should. The glands no longer give out gastric juice to dissolve the food and render it ca-pable of assimilation. The man has become a dyspeptic. to bring positive relief. Put into that stomach of yours the very elements that it lacks to get that food into li-quid form. It takes pepsin, diastase, golden seal and other ferments to accomplish this. The healthy stomach contains these elements. The dyspeptic tomach lacks part or all of them. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet is made up of but reaffirmed his own position, that just what the dyspeptic stomach lacks it would be best to bring about the

Warm Coats for Men

We sell everything worth selling in furs. We can sell as cheaply as any furrier and much cheaper than most. We do not advise buying cheap furs, but put our argument in favor of well selected and well made fur garments.

FUR-LINED OVERCOATS

The usual lining is muskrat skin, and it is a good looking, durable fur, but the richest lining is mink. Mink linings run the price up to $350, while with a muskrat lining and Persian lamb collar we can supply a really first-class coat for $65. These are requisites fer driving and motoring, because they will keep you warm.

FUR COATS

Coon Coats we sell as low as $50 and up to $125.
Also Wallaby Fur Ceats, $17.50 to $40, and Wombat, $17.50 to $40.

sleeping car companies under the railway commission. On the contrary, he favored nationalizing telegraph and telephone companies. He favored compulsory interchange of business between telephone companies. Mr. Lancaster then repeated his arguments, made at former sessions, against peducing railway rates.

Dr. Sproule favored the second reading of the bill. No case could be instanced where freight rates had been forced up by passenger rates going down. He especially insisted upon telegraph and telephone companies. Mr. Lancaster then repeated his arguments, made at former sessions, against peducing railway rates.

then, a heresy crept in, it was such mild heresy that he could not seriously quarrel with him.

He believed that the best interests of the country would be subserved by giving the bill a second reading and sending it to a committee. Why should not sleeping car companies and tele graph companies be placed under the railway commission? They were really a part of the railway system, and the vernment was committed to control of the railways.

As to the exchange of telephone business, it was a nice question, and one which was open to debate. He was not prepared as yet to endorse cents a mile. It might be well to have the railway commission consider the matter first.

Important, Says Borden. R. L. Borden thought that the two-cent fare was an important question. If the bill did not pass, he would give notice of a resolution, instructing the railway commission to investigate and report upon the advisability of such

Mr. Maclean (South York) was glad to find the premier in his company. He recognized the effort of the leader of the opposition to bring about a two-cent fare by his proposed resolution, but reaffirmed his own position, that result by an act of parliament kind had happened in New York, New England, Michigan or Ohio. He assured the members from Montreal that they need not be frightened by threats from the lobby that the two-cent fare meant the abolition of commutation tickets, and the like. These threats had been made a year ago in Ohio. To-day excursion rates and reduced rates generally in Ohio were lower than ever.

He favored compulsory interchange of business between telephone companies. This was demanded by the farmers of Canada. Give the farmers cheap raliaway rates, cheap telephone and telestraph service. The question of transportation was the big question in Canada. It was far more important than the tariff.

Equal Treatment.

"Why should we for one moment hesitate to say to the corporations, You must at least give Canadians the same rate it least give Canadians the same rate on your lines in Canada at the same rate on your lines in Canada that you do give to everyone on your kines in the United States.

He cited instances where competing companies had practically consolidated and raised the rates. He had been charged fifty cents for a telegram to a point only fifteen miles distant.

Mr. McIntyre (Perth) could not support the bill, altho he favored some features of it.

Mr. Herron (Alberta) said that the passenger rates ran as high as five cents a mile in the west. The freight charges were so extortionate that they could not be any higher, whatever was done with the passenger rates. He heartily supported the bill.

THE CRIME OF NIPISSING.

True Story of the Attack Will Never Be Known, Says N.Y. Writer.

Says The New York American: "The rime of Nipissing is no longer an issue in Wall-street. The affair has no bearing on speculation in mining stocks. The reasons for the collapse are sensational, but are not even remotely connected with the value of any silver mine in the Cobalt region or the title of any of the properties there. All at-tempts to draw a moral out of the crime of Nipissing in regard to mining stock speculation are simply attempts to divert public attention from the true eason of the failure of the Guggen heims to complete purchase of stock contracted for. It was disclosed yesterday that the vendors of the property offered to deposit any number of mill-ions of dollars the Guggenheims might demand in any trust company the Guggenheims might select as a forfeit should the title or the mine prove oth-erwise than as represented.
