

DYSPEPSIA CURED AFTER TRYING SEVERAL DOCTORS.

Myrtle, Ont.,

A. J. WHITE & Co. April 3th, 1887.

DEAR SIR—Three years ago I was attacked by Dyspepsia and Indigestion. I called in our family doctor, and he tried the utmost of his skill to cure me, but failed to do so. I went to another very skilful physician in Whitby, and took his medicine for six months, but it failed to do me any good. While I was taking his medicine I was as bad as ever, and declining all the time. I left this doctor and tried another; he also failed to do me any good. By this time I was about discouraged, and a friend advised me to try the Homeopathic doctors, which I did,—I went to the best in Toronto and told him all about my case. He seemed to understand my case and gave me medicine to take home and use. If I had continued taking it I would not have lived long; its effects were such that I was compelled to give it up. I then commenced to take your Mother Seigel's Syrup, and thanks to God, I have been getting better, and can now work about as well as ever I could. I have been gaining flesh since I commenced to take it, and would not be without it if it cost me $2.00 a bottle.

Yours truly,

REUBEN HURLEUT.
