thumb of James H. Ball, a witness of the stamp transactions, and afterwards instrumental in bringing the sellers into the clutches of the law. The assault took place on the 17th of June in the Wellington Hotel, Markham. Ball saw a man named Higgins pay 75 cents for the cleaned stamps and told Harris that he was liable to arrest. Some abusive language followed, then a clinch, blows on both sides and the bitting complained of. As Ball struck the first blow the charge against Harris was dropped. Regarding the selling of the stamps, the Crown discovered that, while there is a fine provided by law for the offence, there exists no method of enforcing payment, and both prisoners were accordingly discharged.

Friends' Evidence.

Mrs. Diana Thompson, 62 Yarmouthroad, and Mrs. Emma Thompson, 108 Yarmouthroad, gave evidence to the effect that they knew deceased, who was under the care of Christian Scientists, and that deceased had returned to her home from the residence of Mrs. Beer a few hours before her death. Mrs. Emma Thompson's boy and had cured him of whooping cough, for which Mrs. Thompson paid $1 or $2, and considered she had received much more than her money's worth. The boy was very fond of Mrs. Beer. Mrs. Emma Thompson said she had had no conversation with Mrs. Beer since Miss Goodson died.

WATERFRONT NEWS.

The Argentine Republic are Opening Up New Fields for Investment.

New York, June 29.—A special despatch from Buenos Ayres to The Heralds and yesterday the steamers were somewhat inconvenienced. The Modjeska of the Hamilton line, which has heretofore entered through the western channel, was compelled to go around the Island and through the Eastern Gap, thus losing 30 minutes, to the no little disgust of Capt. Zealand and Mr. Jolly.

Island Park was crowded yesterday afternoon, a large number of picnic parts of the Past Season.

Toronto's Men's Shoe Centre.

TOM. Cassels witness said she had known Mrs. Beer for 21 years, and was on most intimate terms with her. Her children, called Mrs. Beer grandma, Mrs. Beer had treated the girl berore with success. Deceased had always an extreme dislike for doctors and medicine and was displeased because a doctor was called for her by Mrs. Beer. Mrs. Goodson herself had had seven children and was displeased because a doctor was called for her by Mrs. Beer. Mrs. Goodson herself had had seven children and had lost five of them—four by doctors. Once a doctor had sent wrong medicine for her child and it had caused death.

To Coroner Johnson witness said that Mrs. Beer had attended her for five years and had also attended her for five years and had also attended her children, saving their lives, she thought, as her children who had not been treated by the Christian Science method were dead.

David Goodson, the father of deceased, told of his daughter's illness and treatment, and corroborated his wife's testimony, excepting that when he returned with the medicine the girl was not dead, but was all but gone.

CEORGE M'PHERSON Caring the rights accorded her under the statute. She had repeatedly and occasionally treated deceased under the Christian Science methods. The girl came to her a few days before her death and asked to be treated for a "belief" of mumps. She was treated and the mumps disappeared by Saturday. On Sunday the girl appeared to be very ill, although she said she was not. Mrs. Beer, however, sent for Dr. Fraleigh.

"If the girl had been my own daughter I would not have sent for a doctor," said Mrs. Beer, "but I thought it best to send for Dr. Fraleigh, because the child was not my own daughter."

In reply to questions, Mrs. Beer said that she had not consulted a doctor for herself or her family for six years. She had in the past been a victim of over-confidence in the medical profession and knew very well that she would not be alive to-day were it not that she was a Christian Scientist. The Christian Scientists had saved her life,

Fifty Years Ago.

This is the stamp that the letter bore Which carried the story far and wide, Of certain cure for the loathsome sore That bubbled up from the tainted tide Of the blood below.
