GENERAL POST OFFICE.

LONDON, June 11, 1827.

By an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intitled, "An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Duties of Postage in Great Britain and Ireland."

All letters conveyed by the Post from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain, are chargeable with the like rates, according to the distances such letters are conveyed, as would be payable if they were conveyed the whole distance in Great Britain, in addition to the separate rates of Packet Postage, and the several rates payable under the Acts for building the Menai and Conway Bridges, respectively.
