

ERS EMENT TAX

provincial treasurer, of the suggestion that
be abolished, says
from some sources to place taxes on whole," says Mr.

station in spending to moving picture in general, and when people of the pro-neighborhood of $30-I feel that the
in taxing them to 100, or in other charges them in the cent on the money ments."

ASS MEETING. has been called for and invitations
officials and prom-
G.W.V.A. to attend, on issued also to touching upon this take up the problem of officers. J. Harry the civic authorities
in the matter would take something had the situation.

TONIGHT
EVA MOORE Company in
Mat. Wed.
Best Seats $1.50

NO PHONE ORDERS

Thurs.
S COMEDIANS

RY" OLD NAME?)
ing and Dancing Assembled.

AS IA ST.
SON
NA CONNELL AND GIRLS
ESTER
D SCARLET Doozer; Scanlon;
Koban Japs;
The News Review.

SOME EY ST.
SWEET TED-MALE"
1.15, 7.45 p.m. ack and Kitz
n & Co. Conley
ercher; Chicago
shline; Comedy;
Pathe Pollard

WS THEATRE
ARDEN MacLEAN
allbirds"

LANE Loeb; Gene and
obby Van Hoeh, and Jean Russell,
M. Mutt and Jeff

UPTOWN
-Wednesday
ESS SEX" STAR CAST.

AGES
VILLES
ING.

ROUPE
Co.; Basil & Josselyn; The & Pearson.

REDERICK VANITY," from Arthur Pinero.

CARPENTIER
ER MAN"

MATINEES WED. & SAT.
ats. 25c, 50c, 75c.

SCANLAN
SONG PLAY OF ERIN" SEATS NOW of the Times BEDS
With Laughter.
ETY
E DAILY.
TIG'S MAIDS PENCER
AR
UTIES
FARR YMOUR

REAL ESTATE

We specialize in BUSINESS PROPER-TIES FOR SALE OR RENT.
Consult us on all matters pertaining to central property if you desire immediate action and successful results.

ROBINS, LIMITED.
Bank Building, Adelaide 3200.

PROBS: Northerly winds; rain or snow some localities; partly fair; little lower temperature.

The Toronto World

WEDNESDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 24 1920

40TH YEAR—ISSUE NO. 14,623

WOODBINE FRONTAGE

$19.00 Per Foot.
Easy Payments.
Near Danforth Ave.
ROBINS, LIMITED.
Kent Building, Adelaide 3200.

TWO CENTS

DOUGHTY, ADMITTING BOND THEFT, ON WAY HOME TODAY

Huge Number of Arrests Sequel to Sunday's Tragedy in Dublin

LORDS DISCUSSING HOME RULE BILL; CHAMBER CROWDED

Lord Birkenhead Says Unless Passed, Former Bill Comes Into Operation.

LETTER FROM CARSON

London, Nov. 23.—The opening of the debate on the Irish home rule bill in the house of lords today afforded a notable contrast to the apathy displayed when the measure was under consideration in the house of commons. The upper house was crowded and many members of the commons, including Mr. Lloyd George, Andrew Bonar Law and Sir Edward Carson, listened to Lord Birkenhead's speech introducing the bill. Many peruses were in the side galleries and the stranger's gallery was crowded.

Explaining the provisions of the bill, Lord Birkenhead read a letter from Sir Edward Carson, in which the Irish Unionist leader declared he and his colleagues had made up their minds to accept the bill and work under the measure loyally. Lord Birkenhead suggested that a secondary motive for the murder of British officers in Dublin last Sunday was the influence it would have on this debate, and declared there was evidence that the Sinn Fein extremists were being beaten. Pointing out that unless this pre-

ARRESTS ARE MADE AFTER LONG CHASE

Three Men Are Held by the Police on a Charge of Shopbreaking.

James Davidson, 130 Montrose avenue; Harry Webster, 471 Shaw street; and Norman Bulger, 603 Shaw street, were arrested last night by Detectives Silverthorne and Todd and Plainclothesmen Savage and Tomlinson on a charge of shopbreaking. The three are alleged to have broken into the laundry of Charles Thom, 417 Crawford street. Two of the men were arrested only after a chase which covered about a quarter of a mile, and during which six shots were fired.

The police were notified that three men, acting in a suspicious manner, were loitering around the laundry at the Crawford street address, and the four police officers were speedily despatched to the scene in a police auto. Standing in front of the house they saw Bulger, who they claim was acting as look-out for the other two men. His surprise was so complete that he offered no resistance, and he was quickly placed under arrest. Tomlinson remained on guard over him while Todd and Silverthorne went around the rear of the house, where they found a cellar window open. Crawling thru this they were just in time to see two men making their exit thru a front cellar window. Both of the men eluded Savage, who was guarding the front of the house. The three officers then took up the chase, which led in the general direction of Sulley crescent. The pursuing officers fired six shots at the retreating figures in an attempt to halt their flight, but without succeeding, and it was until the two men fell exhausted into a mud hole in the Crawford street that they were finally caught. Detective Silverthorne, who proved to be the best sprinter of the companions, was right on the two men's heels, and quickly affixed the handcuffs.

Public Funeral in London For Officers Slain in Dublin

London, Nov. 23.—A public funeral will be held in London for the fourteen British officers assassinated in Dublin Sunday morning, it was announced today.

A destroyer left for Dublin today to bring the bodies to England.

DEATH OF BRITISH ADMIRAL.

London, Nov. 23.—Sir George Astley Callaghan, an admiral of the fleet since 1917, died in London today. At the beginning of the war he was commander-in-chief of the home fleet. From 1915 to 1919 he was commander in the North Sea, at the mouth of the Thames. Admiral Callaghan was born in 1852.

MEN'S HATS FOR ROUGH WEATHER.

Felt Hats made of unfinished felt is considered the proper hat for rough weather. Velour Hats guaranteed against wind and rain. Tweed Hats made in England from genuine Scotch tweed in plain and mixed colors and a shipment of English tweed caps all arrived at Dineen's, 140 Yonge street. Also heavy tweed raincoats, will take the place of an overcoat at half the price. Call into Dineen's today and look them over.

MILITARY TIGHTEN NET ROUND DUBLIN PRISONS OVERFLOW

Many Republican Leaders Throat Country Believed to Have Fled to Capital—Bomb Exploded in Cork and Six Persons Injured—People Were in Panic.

Dublin, Nov. 23.—The vigorous activities of the authorities leave little doubt that determined and concerted efforts are being made to round up every Republican suspected of being active in outrages. The military forces are tightening the cordon about Dublin and gradually working in towards the centre, as was done during the Easter rebellion of 1916. It is believed a number of Republican leaders in the provinces, finding the pursuit too hot, have taken refuge in Dublin. The total arrests to date are understood to be huge, but the government refuses to divulge the figures. Dublin Castle authorities, however, admit the prisons are so full that it has become necessary to utilize the castle itself, and that it was in a lumber room of the old detective quarters of the castle that Peter Clancy and two others were shot yesterday.

Bomb Exploded in Cork

Cork, Nov. 23.—An explosion occurred in Patrick street this evening. It was apparently a bomb, but it is not known from whence it came. Many persons were in the street, and six of them were injured. Numerous windows were smashed.

The people scattered in panic when the explosion occurred, and the street was quickly deserted. There were neither soldiers nor police in the street at the time. Shots were freely exchanged last evening between auxiliary police and civilians in the village of Millstreet, in the Killarney district. It is reported one policeman was wounded and two civilians shot. After some time the auxiliary police left from the police barracks the trouble subsided.

Arrest Archbishop's Valet

London, Nov. 23.—Soldiers today at Drumcondra raided the residence of Archbishop Walsh and arrested the archbishop's valet, William Kelly, says a despatch to the Central News from Dublin.

Many Arrests Made

London, Nov. 23.—A crematory at Dharrow, near Nenagh, county Tipperary, Ireland, was burned this morning, allegedly by uniformed men, says a Central News despatch. Police and military officers searched residences and the court house at Nenagh and arrested two officers, it is said.

At Athlone armed military forces visited the houses of many Sinn Fein

(Continued on Page 9, Column 2).

DOUGHTY CHEERFUL; SAYS THAT ARREST IS LOAD OFF MIND

"I Feel Fine," He Says, On Arriving With Mitchell in Portland.

TALKS OF THEFT

(Special to The World.) Portland, Ore., Nov. 23.—The confessed thief of $100,000, and accused kidnapper of a millionaire Canadian theatrical syndicate owner, whose cleverness has baffled the detectives of this continent for 11 months, was captured in Oregon City this morning by a country policeman. John Doughty, former confidential secretary to Ambrose J. Small, missing Toronto theatre magnate, who disappeared from the Ontario metropolis in December, 1919, with his elderly employer and $100,000 in Dominion Victory bonds, was arrested by Constable Ed Fortune. A reward of $15,000 goes to Fortune as soon as the man is landed in the Toronto jail. Doughty will be on his way there tomorrow, in custody of Austin P. Mitchell, of the Toronto Detective Bureau.

PROTESTED TOLLS ON INTERNATIONAL RAILWAY TRAFFIC

Westerners Dislike Paying on Adverse Exchange Basis in Sending Wheat.

BOARD ENDS HEARING

Ottawa, Nov. 23.—(By Canadian Press.)—Hearing was concluded late this afternoon by the railway board of the payment of railway tolls on international traffic under present adverse exchange conditions. The matter has been before the board in one way or another for several months past, and there have been conferences with the railways on the subject without any solution of the problem being arrived at.

The situation from the Canadian standpoint has been accentuated since the commencement of the autumn grain movement because of the fact that the bulk of the western grain is being shipped to the United States. As the railway collect tolls at the point of destination, this means that on a heavy movement of Canadian grain and flour, which is hauled longer distances in Canada than in the United States.

BURIAL OF UNKNOWN SOLDIER IN WESTMINSTER ABBEY.

This exclusive photograph shows the public funeral of one of the hundreds of thousands of Britons who gave his life in the battle for democracy. The ceremony, which took place on Nov. 11 last (Armistice Day), attracted world-wide attention.

DOUGHTY, HELD IN OREGON, ADMITS $100,000 BOND THEFT; DENIES ABDUCTION OF SMALL

JOHN DOUGHTY.

MRS. A. J. SMALL NOT SURPRISED AT DOUGHTY'S ARREST

She Gets News While Visiting Sister-in-Law in New York.

MITCHELL GAVE "TIP"

New York, Nov. 23.—(By Canadian Press.)—Mrs. Ambrose J. Small, who is at present visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. C. Walsh, at College Point, Long Island, was reached by telephone tonight and expressed surprise at the arrest in Oregon City of John Doughty, former private secretary of her missing husband. "I was told last Thursday by Austin P. Mitchell, of the Toronto police department, that he had a telegram from Portland stating that a man recognized as Doughty was out there," Mrs. Small said. "They told me that no arrest could be made until it was certain that the man was the right one, as the prisoner could not be held for more than 24 hours without a formal charge being laid against him. They said that if the man was arrested, and then released, before a Toronto officer arrived to identify him, he might leave the place and get away. I knew that Mr. Mitchell had gone west to investigate, and I was expecting news of his arrest. 'No, we're going home. All I want to know are the points of the compass. I'm going north and then east. I am not kidnapping Doughty. He is willing to return to Toronto with me without extradition papers.'"

"Do you know, I've received so many reports of the capture of Doughty that when I got a telegram from Constable Fortune of Oregon City, I threw it in the waste basket. There's another one, I said to myself. Tho I determined to take the chance and get my man. Doughty will be discussed his past life with a reporter for The Portland Telegram while being conveyed from Oregon City to Portland this afternoon."

Former Secretary of Missing Toronto Theatrical Millionaire Declares He Has Not Seen Small Since He Left Him in a Toronto Theatre on the Night Small Was Last Seen in This City—Doughty, Who Is in Charge of Detective Mitchell, Promises to Produce Missing Bonds From Chicago Deposit Vault—Oregon City Constable to Get Reward of $15,000 for Identifying Doughty.

Portland, Oregon, Nov. 23.—Owing to the sagacity of a constable at Oregon City, a small town near here, John Doughty was in custody here today, after police of the two countries had been searching for him for nearly a year following the disappearance of Ambrose J. Small, millionaire theatrical man of Toronto, together with Canadian Victory bonds amounting to $100,000. Doughty, who had been private secretary to Small, tonight was in charge of Austin P. Mitchell, member of the Toronto detective force, who says he would start from here tomorrow morning, stopping en route to Toronto, at Chicago, where he said Doughty had confessed he had deposited the missing bonds. Mitchell said Doughty agreed to accompany him without extradition proceedings.

Wideawake Constable. According to the story told by Constable Ed. Fortune, of Oregon City, the arrest was the result of Fortune receiving, ten days ago, a circular describing Doughty and asserting that $15,000 would be paid for his arrest. Fortune said he received the circular from Ed. Richardson, of Oregon City, who formerly was a detective. Fortune ascertained that a man resembling Doughty, but who gave the name of Charles B. Cooper, worked at the paper mill in Oregon City, and after shadowing the man until he could get a view of him with his hat off, as Doughty was shown on the circular, notified the Toronto police.

When Mitchell arrived, he said he was skeptical as to the identity of the suspect, but after Fortune and Mitchell found Doughty at his place of residence last night in Toronto, Doughty is said to have confessed he had possession of the missing bonds, but would say nothing concerning the disappearance of Small, further than that he had last seen him at a theatre on the night last December when Small disappeared.

Richardson recognized Doughty in Portland from a circular he had seen a month and a half earlier, trailed Doughty to Oregon City and later obtained a copy of the circular, which he turned over to Fortune.

Arrest of Doughty. On Mitchell's arrival at Oregon City, he and Fortune went to Cooper's boarding house. Fortune said Mitchell, who is chief of the Toronto detective force, told him he had been on a hundred fruitless trips in connection with the case, and doubted whether Fortune had the right man. Mitchell then saw "Cooper," and the door, he told the man he was wanted.

"What for?" asked Cooper. "On a serious charge," Mitchell then saw "Cooper" and, having known Doughty in Toronto, exclaimed, "Jack, how could you do it?" Mitchell and Fortune said Doughty wilted and later made the confession concerning the bonds. Mitchell declared Doughty refused to discuss the disappearance of Small beyond the statement that he had last seen him at the theatre to which he took him on the night of Small's disappearance.

Asked if he would lodge his prisoner anywhere temporarily, Mitchell shook his head. "No, we're going home. All I want to know are the points of the compass. I'm going north and then east. I am not kidnapping Doughty. He is willing to return to Toronto with me without extradition papers."

"Do you know, I've received so many reports of the capture of Doughty that when I got a telegram from Constable Fortune of Oregon City, I threw it in the waste basket. There's another one, I said to myself. Tho I determined to take the chance and get my man. Doughty will be discussed his past life with a reporter for The Portland Telegram while being conveyed from Oregon City to Portland this afternoon."

LAWYER IS ADVISED OF DOUGHTY'S ARREST

E. A. Hay is Asked by Wire to Notify Mrs. Lovatt, Sister of Doughty, and Police Are Later Apprised of Missing Secretary Being Held—Detective Mitchell and Prisoner to Reach Toronto Sunday Night or Monday Morning.

John Doughty, secretary, formerly employed in the services of Ambrose J. Small, missing theatrical magnate who was arrested Monday night in Oregon City, Ore., by Detective-sergeant Austin P. Mitchell, of Toronto, and Constable Ed. Fortune of the Oregon City force, is expected to return to Toronto either Sunday night or Monday morning. Theft of $100,000 worth of Canadian Victory bonds, the property of his former employer, is the charge preferred and to which, according to Detective Mitchell, he has confessed. Late yesterday afternoon, Chief of Police Dickson received the following telegram from Oregon City sent at 11:29 a.m. by Mitchell: "Have identified Doughty. Leaving for Toronto tonight (Tuesday)."

A Canadian Press report later, however, said the two would not leave until the morning. A Private Message. Some hours before Toronto police headquarters was notified of the arrest, the following telegram from a Mr. C. B. Gordon of Oregon City, was received by a Mr. E. A. Hay, of the Toronto law firm of Agnew and Hay, whom, as far as The World was able to ascertain last night, has had no previous connection with the case: "Doughty arrested last night. Notify Mrs. Lovatt (Mrs. Thomas Lovatt of 5 Kingswood road, Toronto, is Doughty's sister)." The dispatch read. The telephone number, Beach 1400, was also given in the telegram. Enquiry at the home of Mrs. Lovatt, who is her personal friend of John Doughty and will in all probability, act for him when he arrives here. This may partially explain why he received a telegram before the police here were notified in any way. Doughty's Disappearance. Doughty disappeared on Sunday, Dec. (Continued on Page 6, Column 4).