

Seek a corresponding spiritual development, it will nerve and stimulate, it will be acting in our best interests, and better prepare the college graduate to adapt himself to the work of elevating and promoting that which is true and helpful to society.

Useful Hints.

For information regarding classes, etc., refer to the University Calendar. The complete Calendar containing information respecting all the Faculties, may be obtained from the Secretary's office, East Wing, Main Building, where is also obtainable information regarding rooms and board.

Medical Freshmen are recommended to the tender mercies of "Mr." Cook, whose genial countenance will usually be found awaiting them at the door of the Medical Building. From him aprons, sleeves, college colors, and general information can be obtained.

If you are a stranger in the city get some senior student to help you choose a room, as his experience will be useful.

Do not buy books until you are sure you will need them, and are ready to use them. You will find them advertised second hand on the bulletin boards.

COLLEGE COLORS.—Crimson and White.

COLLEGE YELL.—M-C-G-I-L-L., What's the matter with old McGill, she's all right, oh yes, you bet!!!!

Don't get up your college work on Sunday. You can't do as much work in seven days a week as you can do in six.

Professor's addresses may be obtained from the Calendar.

Subscribe for the "Fortnightly."

First year men in Medicine should find out when dissecting material is to be given out and be on hand, as they will thus get to work earlier.

Watch the various bulletins, as notices of importance are constantly being posted.

There are large libraries connected with the different faculties from which students may draw books. From those wishing to borrow books, a deposit of five dollars is required, which is refunded when the books are returned.
