THE BAPTIST MINISTERS

(Maritime Baptist)

Rev. A. W. Brown, eldest son of the pastor at Middle Sackville, Rev. J. W. Brown, Ph. D., has accepted a call to the Jernigan field.

The large circle of his former students will hear with much regret of the death of Prof. A. E. Coldwell at Wolfville, last Thursday.

In a recent list of casualties there appeared the name of Geo. MacGregor, reported probably killed in action. He was the son of Rev. P. S. MacGregor, now pastor at Chester Basin, N. S.

Her many friends will be pleased to know that Mrs. A. T. Dykeman is improving, though but slowly. She and Mr. Dykeman are now with their daughter, Mrs. G. C. Warren, of Bridgetown, and expect to spend the winter there.

Another son of the parsonage has enrolled in Canada's gallant army. Among the enlistments in this city a few days ago we noticed the name of the only son of Rev. M. Addison, of Petticoat.

As soon as he reached the required age he broke off his studies at the University of New Brunswick to take his place in the ranks of his country's defenders.

Rev. W. H. Johnson and wife, of St. George's, were very pleasantly surprised on the eighth anniversary of their marriage. Members of the congregation and others gathered at the parsonage, bringing with them a generous supply of good things.

In our last issue we reported the resignation of Pastor Mellick of Lawrence-town. The members of the congregation

Rev. C. P. Wilson has closed his work as home mission evangelist in New Brunswick and has taken up similar work in Maine.

We have received an intimation that a tempting call has been extended to Rev. A. S. Lewis, of Windsor, to take the pulpit in Regina. His decision has not yet been announced.

The Columbia Baptist Association of Washington, D. C., met recently with the First church, of which Rev. W. W. McMaster is pastor.

McMaster is pastor of the German street church, St. John, for a few years. He is meeting with success in his work in Washington.

Rev. A. A. Hovey, pastor of the Newcastle Bridge and Newcastle Creek, N. B. churches, owing to the illness of his wife, has been compelled to resign from this field. He plans to spend the winter months in study at Colgate.

The Bull Moose

to Reorganize

Progressives Plan to Have New Emblem, New Name and New Leadership

New York, Dec. 6.—Bull Moose leaders throughout the country who held to the middle of the road after the party was "disfranchised" by Mr. Hughes, are taking steps to organize a third party under a new emblem, a new name, and new leadership. If enough interest can be aroused a national gathering will be held in St. Louis in January to discuss the new project and adopt a new declaration of Progressive principles.

The news got out today when it was learned that John Robert Taylor, Progressive leader in Brooklyn, had been sending letters to Progressives enrolled in 1915, inviting them to a state conference in this city at a date to be set. Incidentally it was said that neither Colonel Roosevelt nor George W. Perkins nor any of the Progressive leaders who favored the recent "surrender" had been invited.

It was also learned that similar conferences are being held in other states. A conference of New Jersey Progressives took place last week to discuss means to keep a third party alive in that state.

Vice Chairman Matthew Hale of the Progressive National Committee, who actively supported President Wilson and Colonel John M. Parker, of Louisiana, Progressive candidate for vice-president, are supposed to be actively interested in the new organization. Judge Ben B. Lindsay of Colorado, Judge Norton of Missouri, State Chairman J. A. H. Hopkins of New Jersey, who joined the insurrection against the Perkins' plan of surrender; Francis J. Heney of California, former Congressman Victor Murdock of Kansas, who is chairman of the Progressive National Committee, are also promoting the re-organization project.
