NOT A GOOD EXAMPLE
A man aged forty-two, who said that he had enlisted, was charged at the police court this morning with being drunk near the station. He pleaded guilty. "What sort of a showing do you think the British soldier would make," asked the magistrate, "if they all got drunk as you did before they went to meet the Germans? The Germans would soon make mince meat of them." The prisoner was remanded and told that he was liable to six months imprisonment.
LONG TIME IN JAIL
Michael Kelly, 74 years of age, shaking with feebleness, stood in the police court this morning on a charge of drunkenness and using profane language to the street. Policeman Fuller said that he had been turned out of a bar-room in Union street and was using vile language to the barkeeper, and then to the policeman. The magistrate sent him to jail for six months without the option of a fine, and added a fine of $50 or an additional three months imprisonment.

MATTER OF LICENSES
Several Hebrew junk dealers were in the police court this morning, reported for alleged trading without licenses. Max Glass said he was paying for the license by instalments and produced receipts from the mayor's office. Gus Columbus said he would take one out that morning if he could. Jacob Jacobson, who has a place at 28 Pond street, for which he took out a license last year, said that this year a company of dealers had been formed, and that a license had been taken out to cover the dealings of all. The cases were all adjourned until Wednesday for further inquiry.
BURIED TODAY
The funeral of Miss Bessie Kelly, student nurse at the general public hospital, took place this afternoon from her mother's residence, corner of Church avenue and Lancaster, Fredericton, to St. Rose's church, where the service was conducted by Rev. Charles Collins. Interment was in Holy Cross cemetery, Sand Cove, and was attended by many friends, as the late Miss Kelly was a popular young lady. The floral tributes to her memory included a large wreath of cream roses from the commissioners of the General Public Hospital, a cross of cream and crimson roses from the graduate nurses, and a large basket of cream and crimson roses from the probationer nurses. There were also many other floral tributes from personal friends.
The funeral of Mrs. Bridget McDermott, took place this morning from her late residence to St. John Baptist church for requiem mass, celebrated by Rev. W. Donohue. Burial was in new Catholic cemetery. Relatives acted as pall-bearers.

TONIGHT'S KING SQUARE MEETING
The recruiting campaign will be kept going tonight by a meeting in King Square to be addressed by the Rev. Dr. G. M. Campbell of Mount Allison. Rev. Dr. David Hutchinson of North End and Sergt. Knight, who is already so familiar to the public. There will be a band concert in conjunction with the meeting. As the recruiting campaign is growing in interest daily, the speakers are presenting many new arguments in favor of enlistment, these out-door gatherings are growing in volume. It is also expected that tonight's meeting will be a fitting preliminary to the two big gatherings booked for Tuesday, which are to be addressed by Mrs. Netta B. Ross.

NEED FIFTY TO SIXTY AUTOS

Canvas Next Week For Patriotic Auction—Names of Volunteer Owners Requested
From fifty to sixty automobiles, or as many more as can be secured, will be required next week to carry the canvassers into the country districts surrounding the city in quest of donations to the Patriotic Auction. Have you a car which you can place at the disposal of the committees in this great movement in aid of the Patriotic Fund? While, primarily, the societies exert their efforts in the interests of this $50,000 auction are getting the use of automobiles owned by their members, the co-operation of all others having cars is to be appreciated. The names of any persons who will lend their cars for from one to three or four days, while the canvass is in progress, will be thankfully received by the committees having this branch of the movement in hand—George Fleming, W. J. Mahoney, and H. A. Porter, manager of the auction. A generous spirit was shown by one city merchant this morning when he phoned the executive offices and placed his big car, with his chauffeur, at the disposal of the solicitors, for next week. The generosity of all automobile owners in the city is now being appealed to in this connection; they are asked to let the canvassers use their cars, with their chauffeurs, if they care, merely to solicit donations in the rural parts; for the intention is to go out into the country districts to visit the farmers and give them an opportunity to contribute to their camp at the auction. It is believed that no difficulty will be experienced in securing the desired number for the purpose.

HOSPITAL OFFICIAL SENDS WORD OF GORDON NUTTALL'S PROGRESS AT NETLEY

Mrs. J. T. Nuttall, City road, has received from Major McDougall, R.A.M.C., Royal Victoria Hospital, Netley, England, the following letter:
"Dear Madam:
"I enclose this note with the letter which your son, Gordon Nuttall, is sending you, to say that he is in this hospital under my care and doing well. As you may gather from his letter, he is still not quite himself, he having become over-excited and overworked by the great strain of life at the front. But I think that we shall soon be able to send him to the Canadians' Convalescent camp at Shoreham where no doubt he will find some old friends."
The official hospital statement reads: "Pte. G. A. Nuttall is suffering from a nervous disorder of a mild nature. He is making slow progress and physically in good condition. He is cheerful and contented here."

Tell the Right Story at the Right Time

Conditions vary in different parts of the country—and the manufacturer who uses newspaper advertising is able to give his message of value of timeliness. He is able to take advantage of opportunities. He can make his appeal along local lines of thought. He can eliminate waste energy and waste money. He can sell where the selling is good.
