The Camp Shave

Mennen's is especially advantageous when shaving under difficulties.

In camp or while travelling you may not always be near hot water—or soft water. But Mennen's is independent of water conditions—hot or cold—hard or soft water—Mennen's produces a rich abundant lather that softens the beard, and makes even a dull razor rejoice.

There's no free caustic in Mennen's and there's no "rubbing in" required. Mennen's saves you time and trouble, and turns the nuisance of shaving into the nearest approach to a pleasure that shaving ever hope to be.

Be sure your kit contains Mennen's.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRE

It was officially announced at Ottawa yesterday that the Meredith-Duff commission will not report their findings before next week.

Conductor Stanley McPherson, of Port Hawkesbury, N.S., in charge of an I. C. R. construction train, was killed at West Bay road yesterday. He was employed by Jones & Groulx, contractors, and was operating two trains as one would come up behind the other was taken back empty. While stepping from one to the other he slipped and fell beneath the wheels and was killed.

A monster shark, whose stomach contained parts of a human body, was killed at Keyport, N.J., yesterday. It weighed 800 pounds and was eleven feet long. It was evidently the same shark that invaded the Matawan Creek on Wednesday and killed two bathers.

A corporation to be known as the American Foreign Securities Company will be organized by a group of bankers headed by J. P. Morgan & Co. and Brown Brothers & Co. of New York, to loan $100,000,000 to the French government.

A fierce fire which broke out in the forest near Camp Valcartier was subdued yesterday only by the united efforts of the 30,000 soldiers encamped there. The fact that the wind was blowing in the other direction, combined with the efforts of the soldiers, saved the camp from destruction.
