The low price we are selling real Panama Hats at is causing a lot of surprise and wonder.

For the benefit of these enquiries, we tell how we sell them at such low prices.

FIELD COMFORTS HAVE GONE TO THE SOLDIERS

The goods received by Valcartier Chapter, I. O. O. F., on Loyalist Day, which was observed as a field comfort day, have been forwarded to the St. John soldiers in the trenches through the agency of the Field Comfort Association. The response to the appeal of the young ladies was very generous and there is no doubt that the packages will be warmly welcomed by the soldiers.

The many friends of Miss Sadie E. McIntyre will regret to learn that she is seriously ill at her home, Havelock street, Lancaster Heights, West End.

ORDER TO HALT SAVED LIVES

Thrilling Incident Reported in Letter From Gunner Harry Andrews of St. John

Narrow escapes from death have become such a daily part of the life of the Canadian soldiers at the front that Gunner Harry Andrews, formerly of 48 Erin street, in a letter to his family mentions such matters only in a casual way. He gives a vivid description of the battlefield after one of the biggest battles and depicts the horrors of a village through which they passed after it had been shelled. On their way back with empty ammunition wagons they were halted to receive a message; the stop saved the lives of the entire party for a moment later the entire road ahead of them was torn up by a tremendous shell explosion.

Andrews has been transferred from the St. John unit to an English regular regiment, and with him are Bert Cousins of St. John, and half a dozen others who were transferred at the same time, including two men from Sussex and one from Halifax. Pte. Halvorson, also from St. John, is sharing his dugout now.

From Other Soldiers

Letters have been received from Frank Kelly, now in France with the medical corps; Charles Compton of Fairville and Corporal Cecil Harrison now in England with the C. A. S. C.

FEARS THAT THIS MAY BE HER SON

Mrs. Samuel James Sees Name in Casualty List and is Anxious

The Times yesterday told of the receipt of a letter by Mrs. Samuel James, 890 Main street, from her son, Thomas James, who with two brothers is serving king and country, along with four of her brothers, two of her husband's brothers, five nephews and a son-in-law. In the same issue of the Times, in the casualty list, appeared the name of Thomas James, Casualty Battalion, killed in action. The family have received no word, but fear that this is their son, who has written Ottawa for information. Thomas was in the 8th Battalion, but as the man killed is said to be from London, England, there is at least a doubt as to his identity. Naturally the relatives of Thomas are filled with the greatest anxiety.

SELF DENIAL DAY

The fact that the interest in Self Denial Day for the Belgians is not confined to St. John was proved this morning when Mrs. E. Albertson Smith, received a telephone message from Mrs. Burden of Longwater Farm, saying she was sending a check for $2 and wishing it were more. Mrs. D. Lee Babbitt and Miss Mary McLaughlin also sent checks for $2 each, any who wish to contribute and have not received boxes can do so by sending the money to Mrs. Smith or any other member of the Standard Chapter I. O. O. F. The citizens of Sackville are observing Self Denial Day and doubtless many contributions will come from outside points.

The ladies will collect the boxes tomorrow and warn everybody not to give them to anyone but a lady wearing a "Belgian Relief" badge, as an impostor is said to have been trying to collect money, saying it was for the Belgians.

The ladies would also greatly appreciate the loan of autos for the day or a part of it, as it took them three days to distribute the boxes and they would like to be able to collect them in one day. Those willing to loan autos will confer a favor by notifying Miss West, chairman of the ward committee.

KILLED AT JOGGINS

At Joggins Mines, Thomas Jennings, with his mate, William Dwyer, were engaged working on the down hill balance on a thirty-three hundred foot level when a large stone, weighing probably a ton and a half suddenly fell from the roof, injuring Jennings so severely that death came almost instantaneously. His companion, William Dwyer, had his arm somewhat injured. Jennings has lived at Joggins Mines for some years. He is survived by a wife and one son.

GILBERT'S GROCERY

DR. G. G. CORBET AT THE FRONT

Has Been Transferred From Rouen Stationary Hospital

TRIBUTE TO CANADIANS

If Not For Them the Germans Now Would be in Calais—A Striking Summary Showing the Absolute Need of Volunteers

Mrs. George Corbet of Wright street received a letter yesterday from her son, Captain George Corbet, M.D., who is in France with No. 5 Artillery Brigade. His letter in part follows: "Your letters received and I hope that you are all well. Remember to keep the hearth fires burning, and just turn the dark clouds inside out and you have the silver lining all the boys are far away from home. I have been transferred from No. 11 stationary hospital at Rouen to the front and am now medical doctor of the 5th artillery brigade. We are in the war zone and yet everything is quiet here, the farmers working their fields and the women attending to their household duties. Of course all around we have trenches and the Germans are about two miles away. We hear their guns and hear their shells and I hope they feel France where we are now. The Germans were last fall.

"No paper will ever describe what heroic deeds our Canadian troops performed about the last of April. I am about twelve miles from that hell of a place. It is not from one but from every British officer and man who wonder how our splendid troops retook the trenches, which the French had to abandon, and held them in spite of the gas and massed attacks of the Germans. They have performed the superhuman, all they have proved their courage and I am afraid they will in future be put in the desperate corners.

"The number of wounded we had was fearful, but we paid the Germans back man for man. If it had not been for the Canadians the Germans would now be in Calais. Of course this great battle is new history. We are still holding the money back, but at what cost God only knows. What the future holds out for us do not know for this is a battle of giants.

"This is a lovely country, beautiful land, no stones and as level as a floor—the bread of the inland home of the British. The people are prosperous yet live in a very poor, antiquated way. They all do not know Canada and think it is a place flowing with money.

"Oh! how I wish the British people generally would wake up and realize that this is the greatest war the world has ever seen and if we want to win soon we will have to have two guns, two men and two shells to every one of the Germans."

The letter closed with words of love and affection to his mother and father.

SOME YORK RECRUITS

Three recruits, Frederick Tuesday were William Bellard, twenty-six, Stanley George, twenty-two, and Albert H. T. Perry, twenty-eight, Amberst. The five Indians from the St. Mary's Reserve were Joseph Sackie, thirty-three; Philip Nash, twenty-one; John Paul, twenty-three; Isaac E. Paul, thirty-nine; Ben Brooks, thirty-two. All thirty-nine are from the St. John area.

THEY WANT FIELD COMFORTS

Writing home to Moncton after the great battle early in May, Gunner George F. Stone said: "I wish to thank you for magazines, tobacco, and socks, all of which received O. K. I received pretty regularly. I can tell you we all enjoy them. A fellow hardly gets a chance to read them in peace, as there are generally about a dozen fellows around, asking the loan of them."

Contributions to the Canadian patriotic fund have been received as follows: R. E. Armstrong, for June, $5; G. J. Rathburn, for June, $2; collection taken at recruiting meeting in Westfield, per G. J. Rathburn, $5; George Dick, $5.

Getting More Than You Pay For In Men's Clothing

You don't often hear that, do you? Sounds unreasonable, doesn't it?

But it's a fact nevertheless, that the man who buys his clothing at Oak Hall actually gets more than he pays for—2 other stores prices are taken as a basis of calculation.

In the first place buying at Oak Hall means buying directly of the makers and saving the middleman's profit. You get your clothing at practically the same prices other stores pay at wholesale.

A suit we sell at $15, for instance, would cost you $20 elsewhere, and there's a proportionate difference at every other price. For proof—just make comparisons.

Then you get clothes as smart and stylish and as up-to-date as the most fastidious could wish for, or as conservatively correct as the most dignified man desires.

In each case we provide a variety that has no parallel outside of this store. In short, you get all that you can get anywhere else and you get it for less than you'll have to pay anywhere else.

That's why you get more than you pay for when you buy clothing at Oak Hall.

You can't lose anything by investigating, but you will lose if you don't investigate.
