POOR DOCUMENT

C 2 0 3 5

SECOND SECTION

The Evening Times-Star

SECOND SECTION

TWENTY-FOUR PAGES

ST. JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, AUGUST 31, 1923

PAGES THIRTEEN TO TWENTY-FOUR

ST. JOHN WELCOMES VISITORS TO ANNUAL FAIR

NEW FEATURES ADDED BRING ENJOYMENT EXHIBITION CROWDS

Annual Fair will be Opened by Lieutenant Governor Todd Tomorrow Night-Many Persons to be in City During Week-Merchants are Ready to Welcome Throngs to Stores—Members of Exhibition Association are Worthy of Support—Week of Enjoyment is Promised.

the people of New Brunswick and nearby provinces to come and make holiday within her borders. She has something the merriment of the outdoor features, which never grow old or tame, and the getting out of enjoy. She asks them to share there own enjoyment of the Annual Exhibition. She affords the opportunity under the most to life everywhere. favoring conditions for people from places wide apart to get together, to find mutual pleasure, to fraternize and compare notes every year? Is it merely to atand experiences, to gain valu- tract business to St. John? Let able information in the most us be more fair to the men and agreeable way, and to combine

The Lieutenant Governor

The great Fair comes when the people of the rural communities can spare time for a few days of the real pleasure that is found in mingling with happy prowds in the city, meeting old friends, enjoying the best music and clever and funny and unsual features of entertainment, while an impossible display of resources of the province goes away a greater optimist in his views regarding the future of New Brunswick. From all parts of the province displays of resources away a greater optimist in his views regarding the future of New Brunswick. From all parts of the province goes away a greater optimist in his views regarding the future of New Brunswick. From all parts of the province goes away a greater optimist in his views regarding the future of New Brunswick. From all parts of the province goes away a greater optimist in his views regarding the future of New Brunswick. From all parts of the province goes away a greater optimist in his views regarding the future of New Brunswick. From all parts of the province display of resources of the province goes away a greater optimist in his views regarding the future of New Brunswick. From all parts of the province display of resources of the province goes away a greater optimist in his views regarding the future of New Brunswick. From all parts of the province display of resources of the province goes away a greater optimist in his views regarding the future of New Brunswick. From all parts of the province display of resources of the province goes away a greater optimist in his views regarding the future of New Brunswick. From all parts of the province display of resources away a greater optimist in his views regarding the future of New Brunswick. From all parts of the province display of the province goes away a greater optimist in his views regarding the future of New Brunswick. making an inspection of the big from beyond the borders of the stores, and gathering without ef-fort a great deal of information but a desire to promote the genthat will be a continued source eral welfare that actuates the

The Great Attractions

It is not St. John alone the people are invited to see and enjoy. The whole province and other provinces, and the neighboring republic are levied on to make up the artistic, the educational, the agricultural, the industrial and the control of th ers of the harbor and bay.

hotel accommodation. The man pend on ourselves and our re- Office who brings his family in his sources. We must get the spirit motor car knows he can park of co-operation, of confidence, are: the machine close to the grounds of courage to go forward along and under the constant eye of a new lines of development. policeman; while meals can be got within the grounds of the Thoughtless persons some times assert that each year's Fair is a repetition of the last. That is far from being an exact

Once a year St. John invites new features. Moreover, there

Why is there an Exhibition President of Exhibition Association. business with pleasure where that is found desirable.

Who for many months give freely of their time and effort to gather together such an aggregation of features as will Tomorrow evening the Exhiself as well as those from abroad. bition will be formally opened The visitor who comes is proby the Governor of the Province, fited by what he or she sees and and all next week the gates of learns, as well as by the mere the city will be flung wide to the pleasure of the event. The farthousands upon thousands of mer who gets a new idea with visitors who will come from regard to any crop takes back every county in New Brunswick a benefit to his community. The and from Nova Scotia and citizen whose attention is arrest-Prince Edward Island. ed and mind stimulated by the The great Fair comes when remarkable display of resources of satisfaction and no little pro- men and women who strive to make each annual Exhibition more comprehensive and interesting than its predecessors. A Call to Everybody industrial and the amusement months of winter. Get the infeatures gathered together in spiration that flows from a fuller the spacious grounds and build- knowledge of the resources and ings that look out upon the waters of the harbor and bay.

Dossibilities of New Brunswick.

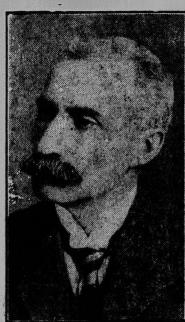

Was there ever a time when such The visitor who comes by inspiration could produce more train or steamer will find good beneficial results? We must de-

A special word to the peo-ple of St. John. It is yours to strengthen the hands of your Exhibition Association. They deserve your support. Patronize the Fair. Go out of your way a little to make their

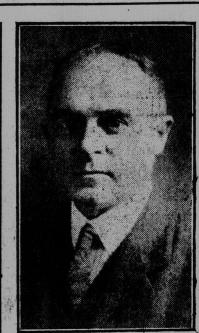

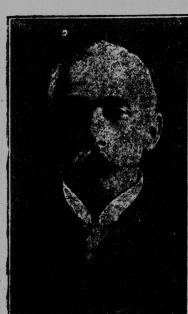

Six Men Behind Annual Exhibition In St. John

Saturday, September 1st, at 8 p.m.

Opening Address E. J. TERRY, President of the Exhibition Association Civic Address of Welcome ..... MAYOR FISHER Musical Selection.

Address ..... PREMIER VENIOT Musical Selection. Address and Formal Declaration of Opening-

HIS HON. LIEUT.-GOV. W. F. TODD Formal Inspection by Distinguished Guests. LABOR DAY—Grand Free Outdoor Vaudeville at 2.30, 5.30 and 8.30 p.m. Fireworks (weather permitting) 9.30 p.m.

visitors. Win for St. John the title of the Hospitable City. Relax for a week and think Smile upon the stranger and make him or her feel at home. Get the spirit of the Fair and help to make it the most successful of any yet held in St. John.

The city opens her gates in elcome. She has had many The fruits of her experience are here to enjoy. There are features to appeal to old and young, to those who are gravely serious and those who seek the light-The stage is set, the banners fly, the band strikes up — let

President, E. J. Terry; first vice-president, G. D. Ellis; second vice-president, G. C. P. McIntyre; manager, Fruits and Flowers—H. E. Goold (Chairman), G. G. Keirstead, J. R. Mc-president, G. C. P. McIntyre; manager, Wilson.

Additional members of the board of directors—T. H. Bullock, John Calder, Holman, Jas. W. Letteney, W. C.

Thousands of women right here in St. John are finding and have found the GLENWOOD to be such a range. It is always found doing all that could be desired of a range. The MARVELOUS GLENWOOD OVEN surrounded by hot air chamner, G. L. Warwick, W. J. Wetmore, W. H. White and Hon. R. W. Wige

Standing Committees For 1923. (The President Ex-Officio on all Agriculture and Dairy—R. R. Patchell (Chairman), W. S. Allison, S. Ernest Graham, Frank V. Hamm, William R. McFate, Harvey Mitchell, Amusements and Concessions—F. A. Dykeman (Chairman), W. S. Allison, F. B. Schofield, F. G. Spencer, G. L.

Wilson (Chairman), W. F. Burditt, G. D. Ellis, Commissioner J. Thornton. Bremner, Jr. (Chairman), H. G. S. Adams, W. C. Allison, Jeremiah Donoeverybody come.

Officers of Exhibition.

The Exhibition Association officers

The Exhibition Association officers of the Exhibition Association officers

The

Executive committee—W. C. Allison, (Chairman), A. L. Foster, T. Moffett W. S. Allison, W. F. Burditt, F. A. Bell.

Dykeman, A. J. Mulcahy, R. O'Brien,
R. R. Patchell, F. B. Schofield, John

(Chairman), C. B. Allan, F. G. Good-

ART, EDUCATION, NATURAL collection of photographs, architectural drawings and plans of modern (Chairman), and St. John Advertising Club. Public Safety—Commissioner Thornton (Chairman), and The Executive. Science. Education and Natural Resources—W. F. Burditt (Chairman), Wm. MacIntosh, W. S. Fisher, C. H. RESOURSES AT EXHIBITION and other parts of the province shown by Mr. Neil Brodie the architect.

dent of the Exhibition Association

MAYOR FISHER

Selection.

PREMIER VENIOT

I Selection.

PREMIER VENIOT

I Selection.

I Sele

GRAND OPENING

ST. JOHN EXHIBITION

Saturday, September 1, at 8 p. m.

Next Saturday New Brunswick's Greatest Fall Fair will throw wide its doors to welcome the throng of visitors who have been eagerly awaiting this most notable event at which will be gathered representative citizens from our own and the neighboring provinces. The

ATTRACTIONS

Special Features on the Exhi-The Pike. Tented City.

Merry-Go-Round. Ferris Wheel. Laughing Mirrors. Big Poultry Demonstration.

Be on

Hand

Early!

Programme

ADDRESSES by President Terry, of the St. John Exhibition Association; His Worship Mayor Fisher, Premier Veniot, His Excellency Lieutenant-Governor Todd, and Prominent Speak-ers from beyond the province. Selections by the 62nd Band. Vocal and Instrumental numbers by Leading Local Talent,

Special Labor Day Programme for Monday, September 3rd

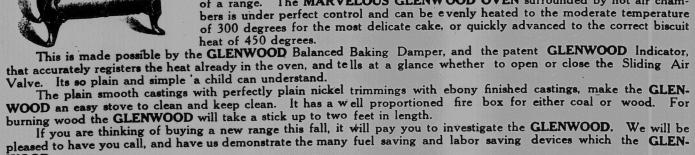

THE ONE GREAT EVENT THAT YOU SHOULD ATTEND SECURE YOUR ADVANCE TICKETS NOW. Advance Ticket Sale Closes on Wednesday, August 29

EXHIBITS The Health Centre

Bring Family!

One Colossal Merry Week-

SEPTEMBER 1, 3, 4,

The Range of Proven Satisfaction

WOOD possesses.

The SUNBEAM Furnace is sold only with the guarantee of a thoroughly heated home or not a cent to pay.

We will gladly refer you to dozens of SUNBEAM users in St. John and vicinity who last winter enjoyed the warmth and comfort of SUNBEAM Heat. Write or call for Free Catalogue on Glenwood Ranges or Sunbeam Furnaces.

While calling, you will have the added opportunity of examining the celebrated Sunbeam Pipeles

