SUPPOSE YOU DID

You buy coal, do you not? Suppose you bought your next supply from the Consumers Coal Co. You would get prompt and careful delivery of the very best coal. It is possible to obtain, you would get the heat and comfort that can only be had from good coal, and it would not cost one cent more, perhaps not as much as you pay for an inferior article. But think of the additional satisfaction good coal brings. The Consumers Coal Co.'s address is 381 Charlotte street (opposite Broad street), Telephone M-2970. Suppose you buy your next supply there.

WHITEWEAR SALE. As already announced, the annual January sale of white wear at F. W. Daniel & Company's begins tomorrow morning. Preparations for this event have been in process for some months and through several fortunate purchases some 5,000 garments have been assembled that in many cases will be sold at practically wholesale prices. Those interested in really good white wear have only to see to appreciate the bargains offered. See advertisement, pages two and five.

An entertainment for the children of the Congregational Sunday School was held on Wednesday evening. Distribution of gifts was the chief feature and a short programme was carried out. Presentations were made to J. W. Fitzwilliam, the superintendent, and to the pastor, Rev. Ralph J. Haughton.

ZION XMAS ENTERTAINMENT. A pleasing Christmas entertainment was held in Zion church last evening. The programme was:

Chorus—By nine little girls.
Recitation by Mabel Keithlin.
Solo by Muriel Purdy.
Recitation by Kathleen Daley.
Song by Mr. Lawson.
Recitation by Edward Cameron.
Recitation by Myrtle Keithlin.
Song by Fred Simpson.
Recitation by Violet Kimball.
Duet by Mable and Myrtle Keithlin.
Recitation by Mildred Wood.
Recitation by Ruth Wood.
Address by Rev. Wm. Lawson.
Distribution by "Santa".

SONS OF ENGLAND. To Englishmen and their descendants, a public meeting will be held at Clayton's Hall, foot of Waterloo street, on January 31st, 8 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of instituting a new lodge of the Sons of England; excellent benefits are offered as follows, free doctor and medicine the moment you join; sick benefits $3 and $5.00 per week; funeral benefits, $100; wife, $50; children, $15. Applications and all necessary information given at York Bakery, 280 Brimley street, City, Chas. Ledford, secretary. 5375-1-4

"WHEN WE WERE TWENTY-ONE" The presentation of Nat Goodwin's famous success, "When We Were Twenty-One" under the auspices of the I. L. & B. Society will take place in the Opera House on January 29, 30, and 31. Through the kindness of the Thompson-Woods Company the house has been procured and a splendid performance is looked forward to. Rehearsals are going forward with a snappy swing indicating success. J. A. Kelly has charge of the specialty numbers, which include recent New York novelties certain to please local audiences. With his usual ability John McCloskey is directing the presentation of the drama and this should ensure success for he has a carefully chosen cast about him playing the various roles.

MANY PICTURES TONIGHT AND SATURDAY. Tonight at the Imperial Theatre and all day Saturday the interesting series of "Mary" pictures will be resumed. This week's installment tells how Mary hurried from her vacation in the Maine woods to the Silver Star mine out west to investigate the telegram sent by her lawyers concerning the trespass case. The complications which arise on the scene of the troubles and the part played by the handsome Captain Bradford make most interesting "looking." The other pictures are Biograph's dramatic "The Conscience of Hassan Bey," and two Lubin comedies, "When the Well Went Dry," and "A Masked Mixup." Next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the stupendous four reel Broadway production, "Leah Kleschna" with Carlotta Hillson in the name role will be the Imperial's attraction extraordinary.

CARLETON'S

A meeting of the Presbytery of St. John was held in St. Andrew's church on Wednesday afternoon, to consider the call to Rev. M. J. McPherson by the Presbyterian church at Ridgeway, Ont. Mr. Taylor, convener of Ridgeway, spoke of the good work done by their pastor, but reported that the congregation would raise no objection to any decision that might be arrived at by their pastor, and as Rev. McPherson stated that he had accepted the call, his ministry at Carleton will terminate on Jan. 4. The Presbytery expressed deep regret on hearing of the death of Rev. C. Townsend, of Fort Fairfield, Me., which occurred on Wednesday morning.
