gaged in Y. M. C. A. work before he entered the ministry. He will be known as commissioner of the juvenile courts of Toronto, will have full powers of a magistrate in all cases of children sixteen years of age and younger. He can also try cases of offences against children and impose fines of $50 in case of conviction.

AN OTTAWA REPORT.

An Ottawa despatch in the Standard says:—"The impression prevails here that the Borden Government has recommended the imperial government
