WEAK MEN, LOOK!

IF I DON'T CURE YOU, PAY NOTHING

Here's an offer No Weak Man Can Afford to Miss.

If You Are Tired of Useless Drugging, Come NOW.

Wear My Belt Till I Cure You. Then Pay Me

What's the use of dragging your feet about like a weak person? Feel like a person of spirit. Away with your weakness and get a new feeling as if you were eighty years old and had your foot on the gas pedal. Let me put life into your nerves; let me give you a new sense of youthful energy. Let me make you feel like a young man again and your head up and saying to yourself, "I am STRONG AND HEALTHY!" Let me give you back that old feeling of youthful vim and vigor. I can do it, so that in two months you will wonder how you ever got so slow and so poky as you do now.

Dear Sir,—I have received all the help from your Belt that I expected. It cured me of stomach trouble and I have had for ten years. I am also much stronger otherwise.—A. W. MILLIS, 132 Bridge St., St. John, N. B.

Dear Sir,—I wrote you some time ago that I was perfectly satisfied with your Belt, as I am now as well as any one of my age could expect to be. I thank you for the interest you have taken in the matter.—PAUL J. JONES, 149 Front St., Sarnia, Ont.

If you are skeptical, all I ask is reasonable security for the price of the Belt, and

PAY WHEN YOU ARE CURED

If I don't cure you, my Belt comes back to me, and we quit friends. You are out the time you spent on it while you sleep nothing more. If you will come and see me I'll explain it to you. I am the only man in the world who has confidence enough in his remedy to wait for his pay until you are cured.

A HUSBAND'S HOBBY.
(Literary Digest)

A gentleman formerly attached to the American embassy at London tells how an old country squire in a certain English town, in showing visitors around the churchyard, used to stop at one tombstone and say:

"This one is the tomb of 'Erry Ooper' and 'is eleven voices."

"Eleven!" exclaimed a tourist, on one occasion. "Dear me! That's rather a lot, isn't it?"

Whereupon the squire, looking gravely at his questioner, replied:

"Well, mum, yer see, it was an 'olby of 'is."

A good time doesn't always depend on the price you pay for it.

SPORT NEWS OF A DAY; HOME AND ABROAD

Athletics Win Again.

Philadelphia, Oct. 18.—In a game that was full of thrills from the start almost to the finish, the Philadelphia American League champions this afternoon administered a crushing defeat to the Chicago National League champions before more than 24,000 persons. The score was 9 to 3.

The hero of the afternoon who shone as brilliantly in his department of the game as did Bender in yesterday's contest, was "Eddie" Collins, the star second baseman of the home team. This former captain of the Columbia University nine several times electrified the crowd by his sensational work. The score books show that in his five turns at the plate, he reached first every time, making three hits, two of them doubles, receiving a base on balls, and making a force play. He scored two runs and sent two home, accepted ten chances without an error, figured in two sensational plays that stopped Chicago from running the bases, and last but not least, the champion base runner stole twice on the king of National League backstops, Kling. His work on the paths greatly delighted the crowd.

Coombs pitched a most erratic game, giving nine bases on balls, He got into trouble in the first inning, by giving two of the first three men up bases on balls. He got away with the inning with but one run scored against him. At several other stages he was in trouble, but the brilliant work of the men behind him pulled him out of difficulties. He seemed to show to better advantage when the bases were occupied than when they were clear. This is shown by the fact that Chicago had four men left on the bases.

Brown pitched fairly good ball in the early stages of the game, and was quite steady. The Philadelphia batters began to touch him in the third inning and in the seventh he was hit at all corners of the field. Nine men went to bat in this inning and scored six runs on three doubles, two singles, a base on ball, an error and a sacrifice.

The two teams left here over the Pennsylvania railroad at 8:50 o'clock tonight for Chicago. They are travelling in two special trains.

The third game of the series will be played in that city on Thursday.

The score:

Chicago..... 9 1 2 4 13 3
Philadelphia..... 3 8 24 13 3
*Batted for Brown in the eighth inning.

New York Giants Won Game.

New York, Oct. 18.—Christy Cobb, by official decision of President Johnson, Saturday, was the leading batsman of the American League during the last season, with a winning percentage of over Larry Lajole of Cleveland, of .00808.

Brooklyn Won.

In a game of baseball played at Brooklyn Saturday, the honors went to Brooklyn by a score of 14 to 8, and not to Brooklyn.

Bowling.

Black's Team Won Championship.

The provincial bowling tournament, which began and concluded yesterday, was won by Black's Alleys team. In all six matches were played, two in the morning and four in the afternoon. As a result of yesterday's play, the Black's Alleys team play goes back to Black's Alleys. The Victoria Alleys team were last year's winners, but they explain the loss of all but two of their former team. The games have created a lot of interest among bowlers, and the alleys were crowded nearly all day.

WHY SUFFER FROM PILES?

Zam-Buk Gives Certain Ease

Friction on veins (the hemorrhoid veins) that are swollen, inflamed and gorged with blood, is what causes the terrible pain and stinging and smarting of piles. Zam-Buk applied at night will be found to give ease before morning. Thousands of persons have proved this. Why not be guided by the experience of others? Mr. Thomas Pearson, of Prince Albert, Sask., writes:—"I must thank you for the benefit I have received from the use of Zam-Buk. Last summer I suffered greatly from piles. I started to use Zam-Buk and found it gave me relief, so I continued it, and after using three or four boxes, I am pleased to say it has affected a complete cure."

Magistrate Sanford of Weston, King's Co., N. S., writes:—"I suffered long from itching piles but Zam-Buk has now cured me."

Mr. William Keefe of Upper Nine Mile River, Haslam Co., N. B., writes:—"I suffered terribly from piles, the pain at times being almost unbearable. I tried various ointments, but everything failed to do me the slightest good. I was tired of trying various remedies, when I heard of Zam-Buk, and bought as a last resource I would give this balm a trial. I procured a supply and commenced with the treatment. After a very short time Zam-Buk effected what several other ointments and medicines had failed to do—a complete cure."

Zam-Buk is also a sure cure for skin injuries and diseases, eczema, ulcers, various veins, cuts, burns, bruises, chaps, and sores, etc. Use box, all druggists and stores, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse harmful imitations.

"To Small Investors"

Re offering of securities of Pacific Burt Co., Ltd. To small investors. Because of the attractiveness of this offering all signs point to a large over-subscription if the books remain open for the maximum time stated in the advertisement, viz, until Tuesday afternoon next at four o'clock.

With such over-subscriptions there is always dissatisfaction through the cutting down of amounts applied for and this should be avoided as far as practicable.

At the same time the object of public flotation is the widest possible distribution amongst those who may be called permanent investors, and our experience is that an important percentage of the smaller subscriptions usually come in during the last two days for which the offering remains open.

This notice is to suggest that intending investors send in their subscriptions without delay so that the books may be closed at a time involving the least action consistent with allotment amongst the largest number.

AMUSEMENTS FOR OURSELVES AND OTHERS

CECIL THEATRE

For Wednesday and Thursday three great pictures are promised—The Lily of the Ranch, a great western drama, showing life on a western ranch; Paria, a strong drama of ages of life at the Italian court in the 15th century; and The Girl of the Northern Woods, one of the best pictures of the kind produced, showing life among the hunters and trappers of the far north. It is new and worth seeing.

THE GEM

The programme at the Gem Theatre, Waterloo street today and tomorrow is a splendid one, offering dramatic, scenic and comedy films of more than ordinary merit. "The Pale Friend" is a pathetic drama in which a bright and happy ending is brought about by a young child. "The Duke's Jester," or the Fool's Revenge, is a Vitaphone production showing stirring scenes in the old days, a wealth of handsome costumes, gorgeous stage settings and thrilling incidents. "A Trip to the Isle of Jersey" is a very interesting colored scenic picture. The spectators are carried around the island to the points of interest and strange and entrancing sights are unfolded. "A Simple Mistake" is a comedy brim full of laughs. The police in this picture certainly make a very funny mistake. The orchestra has a new programme of up-to-date music and the songs are bright and catchy. Miss Doris Dean will sing "Just because he couldn't sing, Love me and the world is mine," and Donald McGregor will render "Promises."

THE STAR

For its leading feature this evening and tomorrow the Star Theatre in North End will have a magnificent travel picture showing Lake Brien, one of Europe's most beautiful spots. Its western feature will be entitled "Under Western Skies," a genuine prairie romance, but what will undoubtedly be the real hit of the whole bill is Biograph's "Examination Day at the Village School," a serio-comic hit from title to trademark. Al Weston will continue in picture songs.

THE UNIQUE

The Unique offers a special treat for its patrons today and Thursday in a grand scenic educational picture, The Zoological Gardens in Antwerp. This garden covers a large extent of ground. The animals and birds will be shown and the monkey house will come in for much attention with comic incidents adding to the interest. This film is beautifully colored in natural tints "The Sheriff's Capture" is a good western sensation and comedy galore will be unfolded in the side splitting farce, "Who is Boss?" Miss Harrington will be heard in a new song.

THE OPERA HOUSE

The play all to see—The Old Homestead will be staged in the Opera House tomorrow night. W. M. Mason in the character of Joshua Whitcomb, is considered by press and public to be second to none outside Denham Thompson. The company carry a full line of scenery and electrical effects, each act is as complete as seen in any of the large cities. The character of Aunt Matilda Whitcomb is in the hands of Miss Della Olding, who has played the part several seasons. The entire cast shows dramatic ability.

THE LYRIC

Those who have not yet seen the performance of the Lyric Theatre, the management strongly advise to do so this evening, as it will be the last chance of seeing the marvellous and amusing exhibition of ventriloquism. He is too good to miss, and is considered one of the best acts the Lyric has yet had. The pictures will be changed today with, "The Fishing Smack" (sea drama), "Mother" (Thammore story) and "The Blazed Trail" (western hit), as features. Another star attraction will be presented for the week end, starting tomorrow afternoon in Howard Dotson with his novel offering of smoke fantasies. Mr. Dotson is said to be exceptionally clever in his line, drawing varied and beautiful pictures from smoke.

Dr. J. A. Macdonald isn't leaving much about Mexico unwritten in his daily letters in The Toronto Globe. The other day he talked about the sonorous with dark eyes. We didn't mind that so much because we knew that the reverend editor always had an eye for beauty.

But now he's gone and tried out all the native drinks. He didn't think much of them either. He says:

"I saw the whitish party-looking liquor, but the look of it and the smell of it were enough. I know of nothing with which to compare it except a compound of sour creamery buttermilk and stale beer."

When did they ever have stale beer around the Globe office, and what does the rev. editor know about it? Proceeding he says:

"But if palque, fermented from the sap, is stupefying, tequila, the distilled liquor is fiercely alcoholic. One could drink large quantities of palque, but a glass of tequila intoxicates to the point of madness and murder."

Mexico must be an awfully bad community, and it was no place to send The Globe's editor, now, was it?

The little daughter of a clergyman stubbed her toe and said "Darn!"

"I'll give you ten cents," said her father, "if you'll never say that word again."

A few days afterward she came to him and said:

"Dad, I've got a word worth half a dollar."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.
