No graft! No deals!

"The Shamrock, Thistle, Rose entwines. The Maple Leaf forever."

BEAUTIFY THE CITY

The Times commends to all its readers the following recommendations made by the Arboriculture Society:

"Help beautify your city.

"Become a member of the society—annual dues $2, life membership $25.

"Protect and take an interest in the trees.

"Place window boxes with flowers in your front windows.

"Plant vines and ornamental shrubs for permanent effect.

"If practicable remove all walls, fences and railings from your property."

The spring season approaches, and if the citizens enter heartily into the spirit of the new movement to beautify the city the general aspect of St. John by midsummer will be in striking contrast to that of former years. The society, of which Col. G. West Jones is president, says further:

"The society will have part of the cost of purchasing, planting and placing guards about trees for members."

While tree planting involves expense, there is much that may be done at so small cost that a general effort to carry out the plan, proposed by the society, would not bear heavily upon the poorest citizen; while the net result would be a genuine revelation of a great change that may easily be accomplished.

By all means let the movement become general throughout the city. If the subject is considered and plans laid during the next few weeks the spring will witness an activity in planting trees and flowers such as the city has never witnessed.

THE PEACE MOVEMENT

The Peace Movement doubtless means more to all who heard Rev. Dr. Tryon's address before the Canadian Club last evening than it has ever meant before.

Those members of the club who were unable to attend missed one of the most interesting addresses with which the club has been favored for a year past.

Dr. Tryon is a fluent and pleasing speaker, moderate in the expression of his views, and master of his subject. His address was well considered and strengthened by apt and forcible illustrations. He paid a high tribute to the service of Great Britain in the cause of peace, dwelt upon the joint contributions of Britain and the United States to the cause of arbitration, and closed with an earnestly expressed hope that those great Anglo-Saxon peoples might at an early date agree that all their differences, of whatever nature, must be settled in this manner.

Dr. Tryon awakened an interest here in the celebration of one hundred years of peace, and associated it with the names of the late Prince Albert, the late King Edward, the late Sir Julian Pauncefote and eminent British as well as American statesmen whose influence made for international peace and good-will.

If there was any feeling that the Peace Movement could not be made the subject of an inspiring address, or that the peace advocates were a haphazardly group of persons, it has been effectively dispelled by Dr. Tryon. The citizens are indebted to him for presenting a subject of world-wide breadth and interest with a freshness and force that appeals to us all.

PROVIDE PLAYGROUNDS

When will the city of St. John take up seriously the public playground movement? The Women's Council have shown on a small scale for some years past what can and should be done on a large scale. The Every Day Club has done what it could in connection with the grounds it had leased, which now, however, have been sold and diverted to another purpose.

This is not a movement for one or several organizations, but for the whole city. Some or later the need of playgrounds must be recognized and met. Why not begin now? Here is a word of encouragement from the Toronto News, telling of the developments in that city:

"No small credit is due to the founders of the public playground movement in Toronto. The pioneers in such a movement are certain to be regarded as faddists and hobbyists until their cause has overcome the opposition and apathy which it must at first encounter. It is just three years since the Toronto Playground Association was formed, and it is to be congratulated on the success it has achieved. It is proposed to perfect a plan of cooperation between the city council, or civic parks committee, the board of education and the playground association. This seems a wise

WHAT IS GOOD

"What is the real good?" I asked in musing mood.

Order, said the law court; Knowledge, said the school; Truth, said the wise man; Pleasure, said the fool; Love, said the maiden; Beauty, said the page; Freedom, said the dreamer; Honor, said the sage; Fame, said the soldier; Equity, said the seer.

Spoke my heart full sadly; "The answer is not here. Then within my bosom Sifted this I heard; "Each word holds the secret; Kindness is the word." —James Boyle O'Reilly.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

DID HIS BEST

Miss Tryon—I saw Jack put his arm around you.

Miss Flynn—You didn't either!

Miss Flynn—Well, then, as far around as he could get it.

BETTER CUT REQUIRED

Your hair would cutting badly, sir.

"No, it doesn't. It won't be cutting nicely. You cut it badly last time!"

NO DOUBT

Mrs. Lateststyle—This gown just came from Madam Chaguen, didn't you think she gave me a good fit?

Mr. L.—Yes, but not as good as one as her bill will probably give me.

COULD NOT WALK TEN YARDS WITHOUT RESTING

WEAK HEART WAS THE CAUSE.

Mrs. Robinson Collette, Rogersville, N.B., writes: "I am now enjoying the best of health after having used your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I was troubled with a weak heart and nervous system for some time, and I was afraid to go on a journey for the rain it would give me. I could not sleep at night, and it was impossible for me to walk ten yards without resting myself. I cannot speak too highly of your Heart and Nerve Pills, as they are the greatest pill I have ever used, and I can recommend them to all sufferers."

HOW ABOUT THIS GIFT?

A promising young merchant recently presented to his darling wife a handsome lamp as a Valentine gift. He was much flattered when she told him to give it his name, until he asked the reasons for so peculiar a proceeding.

"Well," she said, "you know, dear, it has a good deal of brass about it, it is handsome to look at, requires a good deal of attention, is remarkably brilliant, is sometimes unsteady on its legs, liable to explode when only half full, flares up occasionally, is always out at bedtime, and is bound to smoke."—From Norman E. Miska's National Monthly.

CARUSO'S CONTRACT AT $3,125 A PERFORMANCE

V.enna, Feb. 28.—A remarkable contract has been signed by Caruso for three performances at the Imperial Opera for $3,125 for each, an increase of $225 since his last appearance here.

The management makes a special concession, not obtainable by any other singer. One clause permits Caruso to smoke before the rise of the curtain, although smoking is prohibited everywhere in the house.

A fireman is told off to stand behind the tenor and throw his cigarette butt into a basin of water.

Special precautions are taken for Caruso's safety since he was struck by a falling curtain at Munich. Nobody is allowed to go behind the scenes or to stand in the wings unless engaged there. Caruso is always accompanied by a doctor.

The promoter, secretary, impresario and conductor all must escort him from his dressing room to the stage and back again.

Atlantic City, Feb. 27.—Barico Caruso, has lost his golden voice. It has faded away to a whisper.

He is here, under orders of Dr. Holbrook Curtis, of New York, who has told him he must rest his voice.
