Rivers Trimmed Cross.

On Nov. 27—Joe Rivers, the pugilist, defeated Leach Cross, York, light-weight, in twenty-two knockdowns in the sixth round. Cross showed recuperative powers and fought bravely, but could not stand the punches of Rivers won by consistent knock-out.

Rivers had a marked advantage in five rounds, while Rivers led in 13. Reference to Rivers' decision was popular.

Most spectators for the twenty-second round, when Cross, only tired and beaten, electrified supporters by leaping after Rivers and striking him off his feet. At the time the Mexican was hanging on.

Rivers' first knockdown was scored in the fifth round, with a short left hook to the jaw. Cross remained down for out of nine. Rivers repeated this in the twelfth, flooring Cross with a left swing to the face. Cross slumped and once more took out of nine.

Ninety-three Records in 1913

One of many followers of athletics have seen records broken year after year, but always cling to the belief that the marks turned in are so low they will stand for a long time. "Class it comes as quite a shock and that Father Time went down he count no fewer than ninety-three during 1913, and that there is a possibility that he may have to do his several times more before 1914 as its way into the calendar.

Records, of course, like pie-crusts, are to be broken, but it is seldom that many have gone by the boards in a season. Some of the marks that shattered had without the aid of the athlete for a quarter of a century. Most of the ancient ones fell the speed of Hannes Kolchen, a sturdy little Finlander who is under the emblem of the Irish-American A. C.

A matter of fact, it seems fitting to suggest that they should, for the foreigner contributed almost half the year's records. He had a total of forty-four credited to him, thirty-two in and twelve in indoor.

Mike P. Kahanamoku, of Hui Nalu, Honolulu, took the swimming crown which had been worn long and well by the Danieles. The former leads the men with seven records. Pat Ryan the Irish-American A. C. has three marks with the weights and the number with the hammer. H. P. of Springfield High School led in three spring marks.

KEY

Canadians in New York

Many new Canadians are among those settling for the teams which will play the championship of the Amateur Hockey League in New York this season. It was to give some of these a chance to play that the league voted a five-team tournament. The Canadians will be distributed among the Hockey Club, the Irish-American A. C. and the Wanderers' Club. College graduates will strengthen the St. Nicholas and Crescent A. C. teams, the latter being assured of Cox, a great Yale player, and possibly Harmon, a former Yale captain.

Among those on the Wanderers' team will be Charlie Kinella, formerly of Ottawa University, and who has obtained his release from Manager O'Brien of the Irish-American. Johnny McGrath, who was suspended two years ago, has been reinstated and will also be a Wanderer. Claffy and Asmund, both Canadians, will help to make the Wanderers formidable. The star of the Irish-Americans is expected to be Jim Cies, an Indian, who was a sensational player in Syracuse last year and who learned the game in Canada. The Hockey Club has secured a fine Canadian player.

Gossip About the Lightweights

FROM T. S. ANDREWS

Milwaukee, Nov. 25.—The fact that Willie Ritchie gave Leach Cross a trouncing in New York will take a lot of the edge off the edge of the Ritchie-Murphy match in San Francisco for the fans out west will not be foolish enough to bet on the New York boy after the showing their own idol made against the New York star.

Then again the showing Packey McFarland made against Murphy also hurts the latter end of the match. It will be three and five, to one on Ritchie to beat Tommy over the marathon route. The fans on the coast are already calling for a match between Ritchie and a boy who can travel the long distance, and have been singing the praises of Pal Brown, now in Australia, for such a match. If the young Minnesota light-weight continues to make the showing in Australia which he did in his first match, the promoters will be after him strong for a title match with the champion, and by the way, Pal boasts of a title himself since he defeated the Australian champion—Hughie McEgahan—for the crown of the Antipodes.

Another light weight who is showing wonderful improvement is Charlie White, of Chicago. He has never been considered a knock-out until lately, but now he is accomplishing the trick quite frequently. The other night at Canton, O., he stopped the hard hitting Kid Kansas in five rounds, a trick that not many light weights can boast of. This only helps Charlie's chances against Ad Wolgast, whom he will fight in Milwaukee again in the near future. While White was taking care of Kid Kansas, the running mate of the Kid—Jimmy Duffy of Buffalo—was handling Willie Beecher, a tough New Yorker, a trouncing in Syracuse, N. Y. Duffy has been showing all the earmarks of a light weight star and must be figured in with all the bunch when it comes to class.

League. His name may have been mixed up with that of either brother. If they want to start an investigation I'm ready and willing any time—let them go ahead," said Donnelly, as he hastened away to his next lecture.

There should be no difficulty in settling the question. The Sydney post says:—If the Joe Donnelly who is mentioned in the despatch is the same who played baseball here, he is most assuredly a professional. We are of the opinion that it is the self-same Joe. In fact in a letter received from a friend in Montreal recently, the sport editor was informed that "Joe Donnelly, star centre half of the McGill football team, wishes to be remembered to you." Again we have seen several pictures of Joe in football regalia, which appeared in recent issues of the Montreal Star, and if it is not Joe, it's his twin brother. Joe played first base for the Dominion team two years ago, and started with them last season. He was released, however, and signed on with Waterford, for whom he starred during the latter part of the season.

CURLING

Edmonton Bonspiel

Edmonton, Alta., Nov. 27.—Officers of the Royal and the Capital City curling clubs are making preliminary arrangements for a big bonspiel in Edmonton, beginning in the latter part of January, when valuable trophies will be offered from the winners of the bonspiel and the stane. R. B. McCleish, chairman of a committee of the first named organization, announces that the local "spiel" will be second only to the big annual affair in Winnipeg. The local curlers will send representative rinks to the gathering in Calgary on January 14, also to Winnipeg and other points. The Royal Club has commodious quarters in the exclusive residential district in the West End, and the arrangement committee has the first call on all the other rinks in the city. It is expected that the "spiel" here will attract curlers from all parts of Canada as well as from the western states.

A Heavyweight Battle

Calgary, Nov. 28.—Arthur Pelkey has started training in preparation for his bout with Gunboat Smith, in California, on New Year's Day. Word was received from the Los Angeles promoter stating that Smith's manager had agreed to the terms and that the bout could be as well considered as clinched. The articles of the match have been signed, sealed and delivered.

No announcement will be made for a while as to the place where Pelkey will be working out. The preliminary training will be private and even the close followers of the game in this city will be in the dark for a few days. However, the training camp has been established in the down town district, but Pelkey will probably give a number of public exhibitions before he leaves for the south.

Pelkey is in good physical condition. He weighs less than ten pounds more than he did at the time he last stepped into the ring. His barnstorming trip helped him in some of the finer points of the boxing game, and it will take but very little work to get him into fighting trim.

In making arrangements for the bout, Manager Burns insisted that the articles read for the boxes to protect themselves at all times with no interference from the referee, except in case of continued holding. As long as the men are in action the referee is not to break them.

This is an altogether different kind of game to that which the Alberta fans have been accustomed to. It will allow of all kinds of ingenuity without clean fighting. It will be a rough battle from start to finish.

Tommy Burns has requested that Ed. Smith or Otto Floto act as referee of the contest. The probabilities are that Smith will be the third man in the ring.

Tommy Smith will act as Pelkey's sparring partner while the pair remain in this city.
