East End Intermediates

The East End Clippers defeated the East End Beavers last night in a regular league game on the Rockwood diamond, the score being 10 to 3. The Clippers played a strong game, aided by good pitching by M. Griffin, who kept the Beavers' hits well scattered, while Hayes was touched quite freely, and with poor support the Clippers gained an early lead and the game. The feature of the game was a home run by Creighton for the winners. Batteries were: For the Clippers, the Griffin brothers; for the Beavers, Hayes, Evans and LeBlanc.
