

THE EVENING GAZETTE

Published every evening (Sundays excepted) at No. 10 Cambridge Street, Saint John, N. B.

Proprietor: JOHN A. DOWES, Editor and Publisher

Subscription price: THE EVENING GAZETTE is published at any house in the cities of St. John and Portland for a month for thirty-five cents. The subscription may be paid at the office, or to any news agent who sells the GAZETTE.

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, JAN. 26, 1890.

INCREASE THE FISHING FLEET.

The announcement that thirty-five new fishing vessels are now being built in the county of Lunenburg, is a text from which a powerful sermon might be preached.

Thirty-five new fishing vessels mean an addition of about 2,000 tons to the tonnage of Lunenburg, and the employment of about 400 additional men.

Lunenburg already possesses a large fleet of fishing vessels, which in speed and equipment are quite worthy to rank with the best of the coast.

It seems that the business has been found sufficiently profitable to induce "something like boom" in the building of fishing vessels in this locality.

We have no doubt that Lunenburg and the La Have River will become in time as great a centre of the fishing business as Gloucester now is, for with the exception of the fish, the advantages of Lunenburg are all on the Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island fisheries.

We can build vessels like the Maritime Provinces, more cheaply than they can in Massachusetts, or craft on kind their cargoes at any Canadian port, and send them by rail to the markets of the United States and what is still more important, we have the men at hand to man our fishing fleet, and are not forced, as the owners of the Gloucester fleet are, to import them.

The profits of Canada fishing are always likely to be good and sometimes they are enormous. The other day a schooner called the Larzette Griffin entered Gloucester, after a trip to the banks which lasted just five weeks and one day, and she brought in with her 80,000 lbs. of halibut and cod, which sold for $7,200, or about double the cost of the vessel and her outfit.

This vessel had a crew of twelve men, in addition to the captain and cook, and each man of the twelve received $26, the cook receiving $31. Of the fourteen men on board this vessel, ten were natives of the Province of Nova Scotia, three fourths of them being still residents of that province.

The Larzette Griffin was certainly an exceptional one, the largest on record, but most fishermen would consider themselves well paid if they received half or even one third of $26 for thirty-six days work.

The obvious lesson to be drawn from all this is, that we should have a fishing fleet in the Maritime Provinces large enough to employ all our own men, and, besides this, the Gloucester and Provincetown vessels would be unable to go to sea for lack of hands.

Lunenburg people have evidently come to the conclusion that there is money in the fishing business and no doubt, the present ardour of their fleet is but an earnest of what is to be expected in the future.

We think that St. John, St. Andrews and the Bay of Fundy ports generally could do no better than to follow the example set by Lunenburg. St. John is most favorably situated for the prosecution of the fishing business, and there would be a good deal of capital here which would be available for this purpose.

At present the number of our fishing vessels is small in comparison with what it might be, and there does not seem to be any good reason why it should not be increased. We have a good many joint stock companies in St. John for the prosecution of various enterprises, why does not some enterprising individual start a fishing company? We think we can safely venture to predict that this stock list would speedily be filled up.

GOOD WORDS FOR CANADA.

Whenever the solid, substantial business men of Canada meet together, no matter in what city of the Dominion they may be assembled, the first thing that they say is, "Canada is a good country."

They say it because they know it to be true. They say it because they know that what political party they may belong to have good words for their own country, and in its past and hope in its future.

No true Canadian, who regards the wonderful progress the Dominion has made during the past twenty-five years, and who feels that he belongs to a country so progressive and so prosperous, and to an Empire so grand, an Empire upon which the sun never sets; an Empire which is destined to grow and increase with each cycle of years. It is only in the breasts of men like Ellis, disappointed politicians, ambitious cranks, universal brotherhood men who would lay a vent to a blind beggar, men without a Country and without a faith, that any desire to detract from the merits of Canada is to be found.

We court the enmity of such men; their hatred is the best proof that could be given that Canada is doing well. To quote the trenchant words which Macaulay, in one of his famous essays, applied to the infamous Harve, "The one good thing which such men as Ellis can do to Canada is to hate her, and such as Ellis is, may all who hate her be." In this quotation we have taken the liberty of substituting Canada for England, and Ellis for Harve, and it will, we believe, be generally admitted that the resemblance between Ellis and Harve is very marked.

The Montreal Board of Trade dinner on Wednesday evening, was a splendid proof of the loyalty of the people of Canada's great commercial city, and their faith in the future of Canada. The demand for tickets went far beyond the available number, which was limited to four hundred and in some cases a high premium was paid for the transfer of a ticket. The Governor or General was there, the Premier of Canada was there, and several of the members of the cabinet, and every speech breathed the same spirit, the spirit of hope and pride which every Canadian should feel. One of the best speeches of the evening was made by Mr. J. J. Curran, M. P., for Montreal Centre, an Irishman and a Roman Catholic, but a true Canadian. His words, not more remarkable for their apt-ness than their truth, he said that something else besides dollars and cents go to make up a people's destiny, and that there are sentiments that cannot be ignored.

The people of Canada," said he, "the representatives of the people are fully alive to the duty of the hour. Our institutions are perfect, we cling to them fondly and tenaciously; we are content with the present and fearless of the future." This is the language of a statesman as well as of a patriot.

Sir Adolphe Caron, the minister of militia and of the world and carried liberty and civilization to every clime. He also spoke a good word for the militia of Canada, of which he is the efficient head, although a short one, was naturally, the subject of the evening. A brief extract will suffice to indicate its admirable spirit.

I believe that the various administrations, whether composed of reformers or Conservatives, or an admixture of both, which have had the responsibility of ruling the Dominion of Canada have acted by an honest desire to do the best for the good of the country.

And the consequence of that is, that the people of Canada who do not wish to change their political position, they are not to be blamed for it. They are to be commended for it. They are to be congratulated for it. They are to be thanked for it. They are to be praised for it. They are to be honored for it. They are to be glorified for it. They are to be immortalized for it.

At Cambridge City, Indiana, Frank T. Lacey, a traveller for a New York cloak house, attempted to murder a young man, who he supposed was a competitor for the position of moving his head and is in a critical condition, though conscious.

It is believed that Gen. Harrison has disposed of another piece in his Cabinet by inviting John W. Shanahan, the Philadelphia politician, to take office as secretary of the Interior. The young man is a member of the Cabinet is thought to be very nearly ready to resign.

Es-Judge McCarthy, of New York, was a bread-and-butter case in which his client was a young man who was so overjoyed that he made a bed-line for himself and implied several threats to the young man's life.

The publication of the debate has followed by his sister, who after several months, was again in the hospital, and she died.

A meeting of the Charleston branch of the American Bible Society Monday evening a question arose as to whether Unitarians were Christians, some of the more orthodox members of the congregation were of the opinion that they were not.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Burchard, whose three "R's" at a crisis made him famous, is staying at the same hotel in Washington, D. C., as the Rev. Mr. Harve, who is charged with carrying a pistol. Bud Farmer was shot in the back of the head, but instead he and his sister "Bud" drove away in a motor car, leaving their twenty shots were fired. Constable Wilson shot at the fugitives.

Clara Louise Kellogg was to have sung at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, Ohio, this last night of the week. Manager Harve, however, refused the following remarkable telegram from Carl Stronach, dated in Toronto, and are playing on their own account in Detroit.

IDEAS FOR DRESS.

Frings is again fashionable. This is emphatically a fur winter. And now they call it the Hading rule. Accordion pleated coats are coming in vogue.

The head and bamboo portiere is as popular as ever. A decorative pelagote is as difficult to make fit as a tailor gown.

Double sleeves have become the leading feature in long mantles. Card cases of embossed silver and chased gold are again in vogue.

Flower garlands are again in favor for low necked evening gowns. The empire waist is the prominent feature in the styles of the moment.

Large silver belt buckles are worn with wide ribbon and velvet belts. The "be-be" waist is the rival of the empire bodice.

Black lace princess dresses come among late importations of Paris gowns. Jerseys are now manufactured in every color, with druff or chess board pattern.

Some of the newest gown gowns are deep for collars and dainty. The big, bewildering, picturesque hat is a novelty. The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes.

The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes. The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes.

The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes. The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes.

The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes. The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes.

The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes. The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes.

The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes. The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes.

The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes. The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes.

The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes. The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes.

The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes. The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes.

The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes. The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes.

The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes. The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes.

The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes. The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes.

The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes. The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor of young women who affect "highly-heeled" shoes.

The long, slender, silver headed walking stick goes in the fashionable favor