FORFEITED GAMES STAND.

Northwestern League Directors Reach Decision After Much Talk.

Seattle, Wash., June 20.—After three hours of communion and a great deal of just plain rag-chewing, the directors of the Northwestern League, the magnates representing Seattle, Spokane Vancouver, Portland, Victoria and Tacoma, announced that the three forfeited games would stand. In other words, the decisions of Umpire Longanecker and Kane in giving one game to Tacoma, one to Vancouver, and another to Portland, will stand as official decisions in the Northwest League. Joe Cohn, the Spokane delegate, made heroic attempts to slip fines upon the clubs involved, but his efforts in this direction were so vigorously posed by Victoria, Portland and Vanouver that his work came to naught.
