LOCAL NEWS.

The police report finding a window broken in the rear of A. O. Skinner's King street establishment.

Robert Moore has been reported by the police for interfering with passengers at the L. C. R. depot last Friday.

Owing to the length of the performances at the Opera House, Mr. Mantell announces that the curtain will go up at eight o'clock sharp. This is definite.

Letters of administration were granted, in probate court this morning, in the estate of Eliza J. Fish to her husband B. J. Fish. W. H. Trueman, proctor.

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Methodist ministers this morning. Rev. Mr. Comben presided. Only the routine business was transacted.

A horse belonging to J. F. Floyd, of the Clover Farm Dairy, fell on Union street at noon today. The animal was lifted to its feet, and becoming frightened ran away. The wagon collided with a telephone pole and was slightly damaged. The horse was not injured.

A horse attached to the milk wagon of Joseph Moriarty, of Silver Falls, ran away this morning on Germain St. The driver was at a house delivering milk when the horse became frightened and bolted. It was captured on Queen street before much damage was done. One of the shafts of the wagon was demolished.

Some of the residents of the Pokok Road in the vicinity of the lime kilns were much alarmed yesterday afternoon by the actions of a party of men, one of them quite elderly, all under the influence of liquor. It is understood that the residents of the road will ask the chief of police to have the officers keep a sharper eye on this part of the city in the future than they have been in the habit of doing in the past.

Yesterday was delightful on the river, and yachtsmen took full advantage of it. Nearly all the sailing craft and most of the steam and motor boats were fitting about on the sunlit surface. Towards night crews amalgamated on various yachts and indulged in sing-songs and smoke-chats. The outing season, as far as the river is concerned, is fast drawing to a close, and most regretfully so. In another fortnight probably the only boats in active commission will be those of the enthusiastic gunners in quest of the wily duck.

The annual fall excursions to Boston, Montreal and other big cities has fairly commenced. Cheap excursion rates to Boston and Montreal are already on hand and hundreds are taking advantage of them. From the big cities to other points similar special inducements are being offered, which makes it possible for St. John people to get a long way from home for a small sum of money. The canny traveler is having his fun and his earnings just now.

Last week Abel Tobin of Erid street, was reported by the police for allowing a flow of dirty water from his premises. Mr. Tobin explained to the court that the water was from a sewer that runs through his lot and had become clogged up. Into this sewer, says Mr. Tobin, the drainings from the ladies, from thirteen other residences and he refuses to keep the sewer in repair at his own expense, and the benefit of the other houses. He was excused for the present and the court requested that an investigation be immediately made into the matter.

Clerking circles are somewhat agitated by the rumour that two lady detectives are in town trying to discover irregular practices among employees of various establishments. Such a rumour is claimed, become confidential and "get in town," as the saying goes, with their intended victims. The ladies, it is claimed, are from a sewer, from thirteen other residences and he refuses to keep the sewer in repair at his own expense, and the benefit of the other houses. He was excused for the present and the court requested that an investigation be immediately made into the matter.

After tugging at its mooring cord for a few hours this morning, a kite supporting a large advertising banner, broke clear of its fastenings and with a rush drifted with a strong southwest wind towards the Marsh bridge. Usually when these kites break away they become tangled up in trees or wires, but this big red advertisement was somewhat out of the ordinary, for in its course it rushed clear over Waterloo street buildings, but did not get clear of Exmouth street, for the banner wrapped its folds about a chimney on a house owned by the Maher estate, and the cause of tearing away a number of the bricks.

HON. MR. HYMAN WILL COME IN OCTOBER

Thanks the Citizens for Invitation, But Does Not Know Just When He Can Be Here.

Mayor Sears received the following telegram from Hon. C. S. Hyman this morning. The committee chosen to look after the banquet had decided to make no arrangements until Mr. Hyman was heard from.

"London, Ont., Sept. 15. Mayor Sears, St. John, N. B. I appreciate greatly your invitation on behalf of the citizens of St. John. I find it difficult however to fix a date for my visit. It is impossible to arrange during present month, but hope to come in October and will give you timely notice."

C. S. HYMAN."

NORTH END WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH.

Miss Sarah Barron Was Lighting the Kitchen Stove

When a Spark Set Fire to a Morning Wrapper She Was Wearing—She Was Terribly Burned About the Breast and Hands.

Miss Sarah Barron, daughter of the late John and Katherine Barron, died at 4 o'clock this morning as a result of being burned at her home on the corner of Main and Harrison streets. Yesterday Miss Barron was engaged in lighting a fire in the kitchen stove and after putting some wood in, kept the covers off for a minute or two. Some sparks flew out of the stove and set fire to a loose wrapper which she wore at the time.

In her peril Miss Barron became greatly excited, and it was some time before she could summon help, and the fire in her clothing was extinguished. It was seen that she had been terribly burned on the breast and hands, and Dr. Gilchrist was at once summoned. He stayed with Miss Barron for some time, and when he left the house she appeared to be greatly improved.

During last night's storm for the worst came, and at 4 o'clock this morning Miss Barron breathed her last. Death was probably due to the shock more than to the injuries received.

One brother, William, a carpenter, survives. The funeral will be held on Wednesday.

WALKED ALL THE WAY FROM ANTIGONISH

And Now the Poor Old Man Must Tramp Back

A Hard Luck Story Told in Police Court by a Citizen Who Would Not Go to Jail.

Yesterday a feeble old man with long flowing white beard and clothing turned brown from the weather, was arrested as a vagrant with no visible means of support. By the aid of a hobbled before Magistrate Henderson in the police court this morning and acknowledged that he had no money. He said he was sixty-two years of age, his name was Angus McGillivray and his home was in Antigonish, N. S. It was said that he had been in St. John for some time, and that he had been up and left him. He said he did not know where they were, he was all alone in the world. There trickled down the old man's cheek as he poured forth his tale of hard luck.

He said that some weeks ago he left his old home in Antigonish to look for work as there was nothing there for him to do. He tramped from place to place looking for employment, and there seemed to be very little work anywhere. He felt happy when he struck St. John, and he was very glad to find a place there would surely be something for an honest old man to do, but like the villages and towns he visited he was passed by and no one seemed to have any use for a feeble and poorly clad old man.

Magistrate Henderson said it was hard for anyone to be up against the proposition of being a vagrant, and explained that he would be sent to jail for six months with hard labor, and the labor would be probably harder, than that of an old man had done in years. He was asked which he preferred, jail or to retrace his steps to New Glasgow. With a pathetic smile, the traveller said he did not wish to go to jail and would immediately leave the city and tramp to Antigonish, which is 27 miles from St. John and a long, tiresome walk for such as he. But this chance was indeed much sweeter to him than to be locked up with a criminal and forced to do a share of the work with the chain gang.

With a low of thanks old Angus hobbled from the court room and is probably by this time outside the city limits heading eastward towards his old home, perhaps to be taken care of as one of his age deserves.

Two prominent citizens became excited in an up-town resort Saturday and as gentlemen are not allowed to settle their disputes in this resort by the use of fists, there was only one alternative, and that was to go on the street. They did so and after some swings, puffing and many moves unknown to the real boxer or street fighter, they were parted by friends, uninjured, and saved from the police and a scandal.

Fall and Winter Millinery Opening to be Held on Tuesday and Wednesday

ALL THE WORLD takes its millinery style from Paris. Even London, New York, Vienna and Berlin, each conspicuous in fashion affairs, find it necessary to follow the gay city's lead in headwear.

PARIS MILLINERS are exceedingly keen. They cater, not only to their own Frenchified tastes, but design and trim models a la Americaine, or for the German market; in fact to suit the style tendencies of all fashionable countries.

SO WHEN OUR REPRESENTATIVE enters the buying field in that great millinery centre, he finds what coincides with the Canadian conception of smart headwear—usually a charming combination of French and American ideas.

THUS WE ARE ENABLED to present to our lady friends some of the choicest items in hats, bonnets and materials shown in the foremost market, the world's fair for all that's new and modish in millinery—the very stylish, the moderately so.

OUR FALL AND WINTER Exposition commences Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock, in the Silk and Millinery Departments. Every St. John lady is cordially invited to inspect the novelties, for all will undoubtedly need new hats shortly.

Children's Headwear A SPECIAL DISPLAY

MANCHESTER ROBERTSON ALLISON Limited.

THE LATEST IDEAS

The "Gamin" and "Peter Pan" shapes will be most popular. They are of soft felt, capable of being treated in many pretty ways. Large dress-hats will be broad and luxuriously adorned with ostrich plumes.

Among trimming novelties, Frigate and Air, Quilla, Blondine Plumes and large Ostrich Plumes are in highest esteem. The first mentioned are dashing, the Blondines graceful, the Ostrich feathers aristocratic.

Feather Hats are looked for generous use, both in the bird-bugger and whole-bird effects. Numerous color schemes have been introduced in showings of these entire plumages.

Flowers are abundant again, particularly large roses—one to a hat. Egyptian antique gold is affected in buckles, and ornaments. Ribbons are good, and striking rosettes will be seen in great deal.
