Polling has been astonishingly heavy showing an increased Unionist vote of 201,337 and an increased Radical vote showing an increased Radical vote of 201,337 and an increased Radical vote of 13,349.

Balfour's overwhelming triumph in the city of London was the most striking because of Balfour's advance in the hottest corners of the field. The challenge of Sir Hugh Bell, the well known Tyneside free trade iron-master, is now seen to be a piece of idie quixotry only. The question was the size of the majority, and it proved to be over 13,000, and is reckoned by unionists to be a superb reply to the government from the heart of the empire.

Remarkable also is Lord Charles Beresford's triumphant victory at Portsmouth, where two seats were anatched from the Radicals by huge majorities. Beresford's triumphant victory at portsmouth, where two seats were anatched from the Radicals by huge majorities. Beresford says the great turn over of votes was due to the anxiety of the electorate on the inadequapy of the navy. OUR OWN COMPANY

IN ANOTHER SUCCESS*

Few details which could in any way contribute to the general excellence of the performance were lacking in As A Man Soweth, as produced by Our Own Stock Company last evening. The play scored an emphatic hit and greatly strengthened the good impression already made by the Colonials. Miss Edith Warren, as Barbara Vernon, gave a conscientious and highly praiseworthy portrayal of the character. At the finale of the third act to which she denounces her faithless husband, it was necessary to raise the curtain three times and still the applause continued, Mr. Oliver was delightful in a capital comedy part. Mr. Mallory and Miss Crowe were not long in finding favor with the audience. Miss Revel, Mr. Hartman and Mr. Hopkins completed the cast and each did well.
