CORDAGE.

J. R. CRANE.

The World for sale:—Hang out the sign, Call every traveller here to me: Whe'll buy this brave estate of aime, And set my wearing spirit free? "The going—yes, I mean to thing The bauble from my soul away; Ill sell it, whatsoo'er it bring;— The world at auction here to day!

Here's wealth in glittering heaps of gold—Who bids?—But let me tell you fair,
A breet lot was never sold?
Who'll buy the heavy heaps of care ?
And here spread out in broad domain,
A goodly landscape all may trace;
Hall, cottage, tree, field, hill and plain;
Who'll buy himself a burial place?

Here's Love, the dreamy, potent spell
That beauty flags around the heart;
I know it's power, also: too well;
"Tie going: —Love and I must part!
Must part!—What can I more with Love!
All over the enchanter's reign;
Who'll buy the plumeless, dying dove—
A breath of bluss—a storar of pain?

And Friendship—rarest gem of earth— Who o'er hath found the jewel his 7 Frait, fielde, false and little worth— Who bids for Friendship—as it is 7 'Tis going!—going!—hear the call! Once, twice, and thrice!—'tis very low! 'Twas once my hope, my stay, my al— But now the broken staff must go!

Fame !—hold the brilliant meteor high ;
How dazzling every gided name!
Ye millions! now a the time to buy.
How much for Fame! How much for Fame
Hear how it thunders!—Would you stand
On high Olympus, far renowned,
Now purchase, and a world command!
And be with a world's curses crowned!

Sweet star of Hope! with ray to shine
In every and foreboding breast,
Save this desponding one of mine—
Who bids for man's last friend and best 7
Ah, were not mine a bankrupt life.
This treasure should my soul snatain;
But hope and I are now at strife,
Nor ever may unite again.

Ambition, fishion, show and pride,
I part from all forever now;
Grief in an overwhelming tide,
Has taught my hanghty heart to bow.
By Death! stern shoriff, all bereft,
I weep, yet humbly kiss the rod;
The best of all I still have left—
My Faith, my Bible, and my God.
