

DRESS, ETC.

Every young lady must be provided with thick boots, umbrella and overshoes.

School-room dresses should be simple and inexpensive, with high necks and long sleeves.

Every article belonging to a student should be marked with her full name before leaving home.

Very little jewelry or spending money should be at her disposal.

Carelessness and the possibility of dishonesty in servants, etc., make it proper that all funds should be deposited with the officer appointed for that purpose.

STUDENTS' CORRESPONDENCE.

Students are allowed to correspond with the home circle without any supervision; but correspondence beyond the home circle is not allowed without special permission, and letters not having this permission may be opened by the Principal or forwarded to the parents as he may judge best.

On entering, a list of correspondents is to be given in, signed by the parent or guardian.

Some students have had too large a correspondence, occupying too much time, and diverting attention from school duties. This will, in future, be controlled.

☞ Candies, cakes, and eatables generally, sent from home, cause the receiver one or two days' sickness, and are a most pernicious kindness.

SESSION HOURS.

For recitation and study, from 15 minutes to 9 to 1.30 P. M. Study hours 6.45 to 7.30 A. M.; 4.30 to 5.30 P. M.; and 7.30 to 8.30 P. M.

It is understood to be necessary that Day Students should spend at least two hours in study at home. Parents may be assured that something is wrong unless this is done.

Punctuality in the attendance of Day Students is of the utmost consequence. Tardiness results not only in loss to themselves, but is injurious to classes, and tends to general disorder. Tardiness and unexcused absence will stand against deportment on the Cards. All excuses must be signed by the name of Parent or Guardian.
