A New, Harmless Way to Banish Hairy Growth

(Beauty Topics)
By following this suggestion any woman can, in the privacy of her own home, remove every trace of hair or fuzz from her face. With powdered delatone and water mix enough paste to cover the not wanted hairs; apply and in 2 or 3 minutes rub off and wash the skin. This method is unfailing, harmless and quick in results, but care should be employed to get the genuine delatone.

A GREAT ATTRACTION.

In the window of Waterbury & Rising's store, King street, a doll house made by Mr. Walter Peters, and given by him to the Free Kindergarten Alumnae attracts great attention. When lit up with electric lights, the dainty interior furnishings of this fine two story house can be seen. It is furnished throughout. Tickets are 25 cents and the proceeds are for the Free Kindergarten work. Tickets can be bought at Messrs. Waterbury & Rising's and the drug stores of A. Chipman, Smith, Harn J. Dick and R. B. Travis and from the members of the Kindergarten Alumnae.

NEW TUBERCULOSIS HOSPITAL AT EAST ST. JOHN WAS FORMALLY OPENED YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

Interest in Municipal Institution Manifested by Large Attendance at Opening Exercises—Addresses by Chairman Schofield, Warden McLellan, Attorney General Baxter, Mayor Frink, and Dr. Farris

The group of men and women who have long and faithfully labored to check the ravages of tuberculosis in the municipality saw a notable advance in their campaign late yesterday when the new hospital at East St. John was formally opened by Warden H. R. McLellan in the presence of leading officials and other prominent residents of the city. The speakers at the opening exercises—Chairman H. B. Schofield of the hospital commission, Attorney-General J. B. M. Baxter, Warden McLellan, Mayor Frink and Dr. H. A. Farris, the superintendent—regarded the erection of the institution as the culmination of one of the most important movements ever undertaken in this province.

Several hundred citizens and a number of out of town visitors including Mayor Wallace of Summers, inspected the commodiously designed hospital and equipment during the afternoon and all were greatly pleased with the building and its location.

Lieut.-Gov. Wood and Premier Clarke had been invited to give addresses at the exercises but engagements elsewhere prevented their attendance.

Chairman Schofield opened the speech-making in the large east ward on the first floor shortly after four o'clock. The chairman said he was gratified to see such a large attendance which indicated general public interest in the hospital. An institution of this kind he said must have the trust and confidence of the public for without public assistance it could not exist. The women had done a splendid work towards creating the institution which is a comfortable and cheerful home for advanced cases of tuberculosis. He had been assured by the medical fraternity that there was no case but what there was some hope for if properly and timely treated. Mr. Schofield referred to the many vicissitudes which the promoters of the hospital had encountered.

Referring to the presence of Attorney-General Baxter on the platform Warden McLellan during his address expressed the hope that that gentleman would pledge, as a representative of the New Brunswick government, whatever support he could pledge in his official capacity to aid the hospital.

He hoped any support the government might give would not deprive the municipality of the right to decide who the patients shall be and where they shall come from. The hospital could not receive patients outside of St. John city and county. The warden's address follows:

"Mr. Chairman, 'Ladies and Gentlemen, 'On behalf of the Municipality of the City and County of St. John, which I have the honor to represent, as Warden, I extend to you a hearty welcome. In this particular the welcome is extended on behalf of the body which has assumed the financial responsibility while you have already received a welcome from the chairman of the commission, which was entrusted with carrying out the details of the institution and maintenance of the institution.

"To this I must add a further welcome on behalf of those who by their earlier and untiring efforts, laid the foundation of this building. I would consider myself remiss in my duty if I did not do so, for they certainly were strenuous efforts.

"The necessity for such an institution is now apparent to the most of us, but to awaken the attention of a community from purely commercial developments to the cultivation of higher ideals, such as the preservation of human life, is no small task, but I am proud to be able to say that the efforts of those who were instrumental in promoting this great necessity were rewarded by the activity shown by the Municipal Council, the members of which have displayed a keen sense of duty towards humanity, in providing for what must be recognized as the most substantial public effort, so far made, in the province today, along these lines.

A sign of intelligence. "I consider the erection of such a building, as one of the signs of dawning intelligence on the part of our citizens, of the fact that while all municipalities have their problems, there is none which appears larger upon the horizon of duty than that of public health.

"The opening of this institution will, I trust, most significantly mark the beginning of an era of community effort as the day has arrived when all such efforts as this must be initiated and maintained by the community, so that the humblest taxpayer may be permitted to say that he is doing his duty, and not because of the greater prosperity enjoyed by the few, who are able to subscribe to the erection and maintenance of such humane works, all credit be theirs.

The speaker referred to the remarkable progress which had been made in half a century. The laws had been broadening out from decade to decade until now they are beginning to recognize that compensation for injuries to individuals employed in industrial establishments ought to be shared in by the whole community. He alluded to the Workmen's Compensation Act in Ontario, where the province bears the burden.

The Attorney-General said that the citizens could not be satisfied with unhealthy conditions. He was glad to see a place like this hospital to alleviate suffering. Hundreds, if not thousands live in conditions not destined to uplift them. These problems must be faced, and must be solved well.

Referring to Warden McLellan's suggestion that the province assist the hospital, the Attorney-General said: "No government in New Brunswick, so far as I know, has ever turned a deaf ear to the needs of the suffering in any community. It may be a question of knocking and after knocking you shall be answered."

Mayor Frink followed. He alluded to the prevalence of tuberculosis along the eastern shore of New Brunswick and spoke of the public indifference in the past. He told of a young man afflicted with the disease, being shifted from place to place, nobody wanting him, until death mercifully released him. This case greatly impressed him and led him to become more interested in the problem of combating the white plague.

The mayor said the site of the hospital met with his approval, and he considered the institution a very creditable one and a model for other places contemplating the erection of similar facilities. The increased taxes necessitated, he thought, would be borne cheerfully by the whole community. Mayor Frink heartily congratulated Chairman Schofield and the other members of the commission on the successful issue of the work.

The Superintendent, Superintendent Ferris said he had never seen such enthusiasm at a hospital opening as he had seen yesterday. He explained the cause of tuberculosis and told of its treatment. It was absurd, he said, to think that any person could contract consumption by going to the hospital as employees or visitors. The disease, he added, was not contagious.

In closing the exercises Chairman Schofield remarked that the enemy of the nation was the Germans, but that the enemy of humanity was the germ.

The hospital will receive its first patients today. The matron is Miss Carrie Hall, who formerly was a superior school teacher in Nova Scotia. She has had considerable experience in handling cases of tuberculosis. The nurses are all St. John girls. It is estimated that the expenses the first year will be $30,000.

Mrs. E. A. Smith and Mrs. J. H. Prink, the two ladies of the hospital board, and Mrs. Schofield, wife of the chairman, received the visitors. They were assisted in showing the building to the guests by Councillor Dean, Councillor Bryant, Dr. McDonald and County Secretary Kelly.

A generous display of flowers was contributed by Adam Shand, K. Pederson, W. Pederson, McLean & Charlton and H. Cruikshank.

ARE YOU PALE, ANAEMIC, WHITE-LIPPED, THIN?

Anaemia means colorless blood—pale lips, blanched tips, faded cheeks. You grow dyspeptic, nervous, suffer functional irregularity. This condition can't exist if there is plenty of healthy blood. Ferronone makes good blood, rich nutritious blood—that's why it cures. In concentrated form Ferronone contains certain rare qualities that render it unfailing in anaemia, languor, poor color, and loss of weight. To build up—feel young and vigorous, nothing is better than Ferronone. At all dealers in 50c. boxes.

Pape's Diapiesin is noted for its speed in giving relief. Its harmless action; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone could eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

OBITUARY.

Leander Lingley
At noon yesterday Leander Lingley, a life-long resident of Lingley, passed away at his home, in the seventy-fifth year of his age. He had been in ill-health for about two months and confined to his bed for one month. For a number of years he was engaged in the lumbering business, but four or five years ago he accepted the position of postmaster of Westfield. He had, however, practically ceased business activity during this year. Mr. Lingley was greatly respected in the community and many will miss him as a genial neighbor and friend. He leaves besides his wife, five daughters, two sons and fourteen grandchildren. His grandfather, Peter Lingley, came to St. John with the Loyal-

Fireside Christmas Concerts

By World-Famed Artists in Your Home

Think of the pleasure and privilege it would be to crown the Christmas festivities with fireside musicles by the most noted artists, the greatest bands and orchestras, the world over—to hear them, at their best, in your own favorite selections, with all the warmth and beauty of expression, the exquisite tone phrasing of the original renderings, reproduced by Edison's marvellous musical masterpiece, the NEW EDISON DIAMOND DISC PHONOGRAPH which is delighting thousands of music lovers in every part of the civilized world.

After years of patient experimenting, Mr. Edison has, at last, placed the Phonograph far above talking-machine level, thus giving to the world A PERFECT MUSICAL INSTRUMENT, by means of the wonderful Diamond Stylus (doing away with the changing of needles) which brings out all the overtones on which music must depend for its sweetness. The reproduces vocal music exactly as it comes from the throat of the singer, with all the tenderness and sympathy, and instrumental selections just as originally produced.

In the home the New Edison has proven an endless source of pleasure and instruction. It is splendidly adapted for dancing; you simply throw back the rug, start one of the many blithesome, popular melodies which the great Edison record library affords and "trip the light fantastic" to its catchy measures. You'll never weary of the New Edison, simply because it is distinctly a Real Musical Instrument.

The vast superiority of these New Edison Instruments has been readily conceded by all who have heard them. They are a complete revelation to music-lovers everywhere.
