

Correspondents' Corner.

HAMPTON

Hampton, June 26.—Mrs. Moran and daughter, Mrs. Hutchins arrived from Montreal, today and are guests at the Waynes Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Banks, St. John, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Frost.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Seely, Lower section, announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Edith, to Stanley D. Granville, son of Mrs. Thos. Granville, St. John, the wedding to take place the second week in July.

Miss H. L. Barnes left on Saturday for Sussex, where she is professionally engaged.

Miss U. Louise Alward and Mr. J. C. Keith spent Sunday at Kejapee, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Barnes, is the guest of Mrs. S. Hayward for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kenny, received word from Ottawa on Wednesday that their eldest son, Pte. Harold Kenny, had been wounded. Pte. Kenny belonged to the 55th Battalion.

His brother, Hugh, is with the Army Service Corps.

Rev. W. B. Armstrong, St. John, is a guest at Mrs. B. S. Campbell's.

Mrs. Edward Hooper motored to Fredericton with friends this week, and spent a few days.

Miss Gladys Smith spent Saturday with her brother, Sergt. Bert Smith, 14th Batt., Sussex.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wilkinson, and son, arrived in Hampton last week, and have taken possession of the residence on Everett St., owned by Mr. Harry Schofield.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Evans and son, Jack, Duck Cove, are spending a few days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Fowler.

On Monday, Mr. A. T. Eddy was called to his home in Chatham, owing to the serious illness of his father, Mr. Kenneth Galt, St. John, is filling his place in the Bank of Nova Scotia.

Mrs. Harry Schofield, Rethsay, spent Wednesday in Hampton.

Miss Alice White, Sussex, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Angvine.

Sergt. Arthur Seely, 5th Battalion, arrived in Hampton on Monday evening. Many friends were glad to welcome him home, after being absent for two years.

Sergt. Seely enlisted with a Western Battalion during the first of the war. He is now recovering from wounds received in the famous battle of Ypres, May, 1915, and has been granted six weeks' furlough.

Formerly he was a member of the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia here, for St. John, where she is the guest of Mrs. Theo. Cushing.

Miss Jean Schofield spent part of this week with Mrs. Harry Schofield, Rethsay.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. McAvity, had as guests on Saturday, Lieut. Jarvis and Mrs. Jarvis, Miss Kathleen Coster, and Lieut. Pickard, all of St. John.

Miss John Crawford and daughter, Miss Edna Crawford, Miss Frances Fairweather and Mr. Edward Herrington are enjoying a visit in Halifax.

Miss Madeline Wetmore, St. John, is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Wetmore.

The Misses Joan Schofield, Sibyl Barnes, and Dorothy March attended the dance given by the Rethsay Collegiate school on Tuesday evening.

Deep sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McManus in the loss of their son, Freeman, recently "killed in action." Pte. McManus enlisted with a Western battalion some time ago.

The Misses Helen and Lillian Cowan, St. John, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Cowan.

Lieut. Hazen was the guest of this week of Mr. and Mrs. T. Carvell.

Mr. Carpenter, Hampstead, Queens Co., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Judson Elips.

On Sunday morning the Presbyterian Church was occupied by Rev. Dr. Burrows of Bermuda. He was a guest of "Stonewall" while here.

On Friday evening last, the pupils of grades nine and ten of H. C. S. entertained the members of the graduating class. The invited guests were the graduates and their parents, the graduates of 1915, the trustees and their wives, and the Hampton School staff.

About six p. m. three hay-carts, well filled with the graduates, proceeded to Elmwood beach, on the Bellefleur. On arriving there a big bonfire was built around which a dainty lunch was enjoyed. About eleven of the merry party started for home in the beautiful moonlight. All seemed to enjoy the evening to the fullest.

Miss Elvina Maher, St. John, visited her cousin, Miss Dorothy Maher over Sunday.

Mrs. Edgar Fairweather had as weekend guests Mrs. G. D. Fairweather, and the Misses Carrie and Grace Fairweather, St. John.

Mrs. Millie Walker of LaGrange, Georgia, and her son, Thomas Walker of Philadelphia, arrived on Wednesday and are guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Crowfoot.

Edward Gallagher, a former pupil of H. C. S., has arrived at the village, having graduated from St. Joseph's College, Memramcook.

Hon. Judge Wedderburn and Miss Wedderburn, who have spent the winter in St. John, have come to Hampton for the summer.

Mrs. C. T. Wetmore and children, have returned from a visit to Kingston, accompanied by Mr. Wetmore's mother.

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, June 26.—Dr. Frank McNaughton is visiting at Hopewell Cape at the home of his mother, Mrs. B. T. Carter. He has just returned from Salomiki, having spent a year in the service of the Empire. He expects to leave for Montreal for overseas about the 8th July.

He enlisted as private, but was later promoted to captain.

Prof. DesBarres of Sackville, visited Hopewell Cape and Hillsboro this week in the interests of the Patriotic Fund and will return to the former place on the 4th of July to be present at the meeting of the Municipal Council, when a further contribution to the fund to the fund will be requested.

R. B. Bennett, K. C., M. P. for Calgary, who has been visiting at the home of his brother, Capt. R. V. Bennett, left the first of the week en route home.

Miss Margaret Chapman was called to her home in Port Elgin on Friday, having received the sad intelligence of the death of her brother, Walter, who was killed while teaching at Chemical Road, made many friends during the term who will sympathize with her in her loss.

Miss Stella Jones of Petticoat, is the guest of Miss Frances Rogers.

The at-home given by the graduating class of the Albert County Grammar School on Friday evening, was well attended, the large assembly hall being filled. The programme was as follows: Instrumental solo, Miss Prescott; vocal solo, Mr. Morgan, reading, Miss Murray, vocal solo, Mr. Peacock; Class Prophecy, Miss Frances Rogers; 16; vocal solo, Mr. Morgan; recitation, Miss Rogers.

Mr. Morgan is highly gifted with musical ability and kindly responded to each of his numbers with choice selections. Mr. Byrd was accompanist. The graduating class this year is: Percy Vincent Barrett, Harry Renforth Filchen, Annie McCormack, Rennie, Frances Edna Rogers, Helen Grace Turner. The class prophecy read by Miss Frances Rogers reflected much credit on the young graduate.

Ice cream and cake were served at the close.

The friends of Moody Reid of Albert will regret to learn of his illness. He was called to his home in St. John, where he is recovering from wounds received in the famous battle of Ypres, May, 1915, and has been granted six weeks' furlough.

Formerly he was a member of the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia here, for St. John, where she is the guest of Mrs. Theo. Cushing.

Miss Jean Schofield spent part of this week with Mrs. Harry Schofield, Rethsay.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. McAvity, had as guests on Saturday, Lieut. Jarvis and Mrs. Jarvis, Miss Kathleen Coster, and Lieut. Pickard, all of St. John.

Miss John Crawford and daughter, Miss Edna Crawford, Miss Frances Fairweather and Mr. Edward Herrington are enjoying a visit in Halifax.

Miss Madeline Wetmore, St. John, is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Wetmore.

The Misses Joan Schofield, Sibyl Barnes, and Dorothy March attended the dance given by the Rethsay Collegiate school on Tuesday evening.

Deep sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McManus in the loss of their son, Freeman, recently "killed in action." Pte. McManus enlisted with a Western battalion some time ago.

The Misses Helen and Lillian Cowan, St. John, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Cowan.

Lieut. Hazen was the guest of this week of Mr. and Mrs. T. Carvell.

Mr. Carpenter, Hampstead, Queens Co., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Judson Elips.

On Sunday morning the Presbyterian Church was occupied by Rev. Dr. Burrows of Bermuda. He was a guest of "Stonewall" while here.

On Friday evening last, the pupils of grades nine and ten of H. C. S. entertained the members of the graduating class. The invited guests were the graduates and their parents, the graduates of 1915, the trustees and their wives, and the Hampton School staff.

About six p. m. three hay-carts, well filled with the graduates, proceeded to Elmwood beach, on the Bellefleur. On arriving there a big bonfire was built around which a dainty lunch was enjoyed. About eleven of the merry party started for home in the beautiful moonlight. All seemed to enjoy the evening to the fullest.

Miss Elvina Maher, St. John, visited her cousin, Miss Dorothy Maher over Sunday.

Mrs. Edgar Fairweather had as weekend guests Mrs. G. D. Fairweather, and the Misses Carrie and Grace Fairweather, St. John.

Mrs. Millie Walker of LaGrange, Georgia, and her son, Thomas Walker of Philadelphia, arrived on Wednesday and are guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Crowfoot.

Edward Gallagher, a former pupil of H. C. S., has arrived at the village, having graduated from St. Joseph's College, Memramcook.

Hon. Judge Wedderburn and Miss Wedderburn, who have spent the winter in St. John, have come to Hampton for the summer.

Mrs. C. T. Wetmore and children, have returned from a visit to Kingston, accompanied by Mr. Wetmore's mother.

On Sunday morning the Presbyterian Church was occupied by Rev. Dr. Burrows of Bermuda. He was a guest of "Stonewall" while here.

On Friday evening last, the pupils of grades nine and ten of H. C. S. entertained the members of the graduating class. The invited guests were the graduates and their parents, the graduates of 1915, the trustees and their wives, and the Hampton School staff.

About six p. m. three hay-carts, well filled with the graduates, proceeded to Elmwood beach, on the Bellefleur. On arriving there a big bonfire was built around which a dainty lunch was enjoyed. About eleven of the merry party started for home in the beautiful moonlight. All seemed to enjoy the evening to the fullest.

Miss Elvina Maher, St. John, visited her cousin, Miss Dorothy Maher over Sunday.

Mrs. Edgar Fairweather had as weekend guests Mrs. G. D. Fairweather, and the Misses Carrie and Grace Fairweather, St. John.

Mrs. Millie Walker of LaGrange, Georgia, and her son, Thomas Walker of Philadelphia, arrived on Wednesday and are guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Crowfoot.

Edward Gallagher, a former pupil of H. C. S., has arrived at the village, having graduated from St. Joseph's College, Memramcook.

Hon. Judge Wedderburn and Miss Wedderburn, who have spent the winter in St. John, have come to Hampton for the summer.

Mrs. C. T. Wetmore and children, have returned from a visit to Kingston, accompanied by Mr. Wetmore's mother.

On Sunday morning the Presbyterian Church was occupied by Rev. Dr. Burrows of Bermuda. He was a guest of "Stonewall" while here.

On Friday evening last, the pupils of grades nine and ten of H. C. S. entertained the members of the graduating class. The invited guests were the graduates and their parents, the graduates of 1915, the trustees and their wives, and the Hampton School staff.

About six p. m. three hay-carts, well filled with the graduates, proceeded to Elmwood beach, on the Bellefleur. On arriving there a big bonfire was built around which a dainty lunch was enjoyed. About eleven of the merry party started for home in the beautiful moonlight. All seemed to enjoy the evening to the fullest.

Miss Elvina Maher, St. John, visited her cousin, Miss Dorothy Maher over Sunday.

Mrs. Edgar Fairweather had as weekend guests Mrs. G. D. Fairweather, and the Misses Carrie and Grace Fairweather, St. John.

Mrs. Millie Walker of LaGrange, Georgia, and her son, Thomas Walker of Philadelphia, arrived on Wednesday and are guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Crowfoot.

Edward Gallagher, a former pupil of H. C. S., has arrived at the village, having graduated from St. Joseph's College, Memramcook.

Hon. Judge Wedderburn and Miss Wedderburn, who have spent the winter in St. John, have come to Hampton for the summer.

Mrs. C. T. Wetmore and children, have returned from a visit to Kingston, accompanied by Mr. Wetmore's mother.

On Sunday morning the Presbyterian Church was occupied by Rev. Dr. Burrows of Bermuda. He was a guest of "Stonewall" while here.

On Friday evening last, the pupils of grades nine and ten of H. C. S. entertained the members of the graduating class. The invited guests were the graduates and their parents, the graduates of 1915, the trustees and their wives, and the Hampton School staff.

About six p. m. three hay-carts, well filled with the graduates, proceeded to Elmwood beach, on the Bellefleur. On arriving there a big bonfire was built around which a dainty lunch was enjoyed. About eleven of the merry party started for home in the beautiful moonlight. All seemed to enjoy the evening to the fullest.

Miss Elvina Maher, St. John, visited her cousin, Miss Dorothy Maher over Sunday.

Mrs. Edgar Fairweather had as weekend guests Mrs. G. D. Fairweather, and the Misses Carrie and Grace Fairweather, St. John.

Mrs. Millie Walker of LaGrange, Georgia, and her son, Thomas Walker of Philadelphia, arrived on Wednesday and are guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Crowfoot.

Edward Gallagher, a former pupil of H. C. S., has arrived at the village, having graduated from St. Joseph's College, Memramcook.

Hon. Judge Wedderburn and Miss Wedderburn, who have spent the winter in St. John, have come to Hampton for the summer.

Mrs. C. T. Wetmore and children, have returned from a visit to Kingston, accompanied by Mr. Wetmore's mother.

On Sunday morning the Presbyterian Church was occupied by Rev. Dr. Burrows of Bermuda. He was a guest of "Stonewall" while here.

On Friday evening last, the pupils of grades nine and ten of H. C. S. entertained the members of the graduating class. The invited guests were the graduates and their parents, the graduates of 1915, the trustees and their wives, and the Hampton School staff.

About six p. m. three hay-carts, well filled with the graduates, proceeded to Elmwood beach, on the Bellefleur. On arriving there a big bonfire was built around which a dainty lunch was enjoyed. About eleven of the merry party started for home in the beautiful moonlight. All seemed to enjoy the evening to the fullest.

Miss Elvina Maher, St. John, visited her cousin, Miss Dorothy Maher over Sunday.

Mrs. Edgar Fairweather had as weekend guests Mrs. G. D. Fairweather, and the Misses Carrie and Grace Fairweather, St. John.

Mrs. Millie Walker of LaGrange, Georgia, and her son, Thomas Walker of Philadelphia, arrived on Wednesday and are guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Crowfoot.

Edward Gallagher, a former pupil of H. C. S., has arrived at the village, having graduated from St. Joseph's College, Memramcook.

Hon. Judge Wedderburn and Miss Wedderburn, who have spent the winter in St. John, have come to Hampton for the summer.

Mrs. C. T. Wetmore and children, have returned from a visit to Kingston, accompanied by Mr. Wetmore's mother.

On Sunday morning the Presbyterian Church was occupied by Rev. Dr. Burrows of Bermuda. He was a guest of "Stonewall" while here.

On Friday evening last, the pupils of grades nine and ten of H. C. S. entertained the members of the graduating class. The invited guests were the graduates and their parents, the graduates of 1915, the trustees and their wives, and the Hampton School staff.

About six p. m. three hay-carts, well filled with the graduates, proceeded to Elmwood beach, on the Bellefleur. On arriving there a big bonfire was built around which a dainty lunch was enjoyed. About eleven of the merry party started for home in the beautiful moonlight. All seemed to enjoy the evening to the fullest.

Miss Elvina Maher, St. John, visited her cousin, Miss Dorothy Maher over Sunday.

Mrs. Edgar Fairweather had as weekend guests Mrs. G. D. Fairweather, and the Misses Carrie and Grace Fairweather, St. John.

Mrs. Millie Walker of LaGrange, Georgia, and her son, Thomas Walker of Philadelphia, arrived on Wednesday and are guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Crowfoot.

Edward Gallagher, a former pupil of H. C. S., has arrived at the village, having graduated from St. Joseph's College, Memramcook.

Hon. Judge Wedderburn and Miss Wedderburn, who have spent the winter in St. John, have come to Hampton for the summer.

Mrs. C. T. Wetmore and children, have returned from a visit to Kingston, accompanied by Mr. Wetmore's mother.

On Sunday morning the Presbyterian Church was occupied by Rev. Dr. Burrows of Bermuda. He was a guest of "Stonewall" while here.

On Friday evening last, the pupils of grades nine and ten of H. C. S. entertained the members of the graduating class. The invited guests were the graduates and their parents, the graduates of 1915, the trustees and their wives, and the Hampton School staff.

About six p. m. three hay-carts, well filled with the graduates, proceeded to Elmwood beach, on the Bellefleur. On arriving there a big bonfire was built around which a dainty lunch was enjoyed. About eleven of the merry party started for home in the beautiful moonlight. All seemed to enjoy the evening to the fullest.

Miss Elvina Maher, St. John, visited her cousin, Miss Dorothy Maher over Sunday.

Mrs. Edgar Fairweather had as weekend guests Mrs. G. D. Fairweather, and the Misses Carrie and Grace Fairweather, St. John.

Mrs. Millie Walker of LaGrange, Georgia, and her son, Thomas Walker of Philadelphia, arrived on Wednesday and are guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Crowfoot.

Edward Gallagher, a former pupil of H. C. S., has arrived at the village, having graduated from St. Joseph's College, Memramcook.

Hon. Judge Wedderburn and Miss Wedderburn, who have spent the winter in St. John, have come to Hampton for the summer.

Mrs. C. T. Wetmore and children, have returned from a visit to Kingston, accompanied by Mr. Wetmore's mother.

On Sunday morning the Presbyterian Church was occupied by Rev. Dr. Burrows of Bermuda. He was a guest of "Stonewall" while here.

On Friday evening last, the pupils of grades nine and ten of H. C. S. entertained the members of the graduating class. The invited guests were the graduates and their parents, the graduates of 1915, the trustees and their wives, and the Hampton School staff.

About six p. m. three hay-carts, well filled with the graduates, proceeded to Elmwood beach, on the Bellefleur. On arriving there a big bonfire was built around which a dainty lunch was enjoyed. About eleven of the merry party started for home in the beautiful moonlight. All seemed to enjoy the evening to the fullest.

Miss Elvina Maher, St. John, visited her cousin, Miss Dorothy Maher over Sunday.

Mrs. Edgar Fairweather had as weekend guests Mrs. G. D. Fairweather, and the Misses Carrie and Grace Fairweather, St. John.

Mrs. Millie Walker of LaGrange, Georgia, and her son, Thomas Walker of Philadelphia, arrived on Wednesday and are guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Crowfoot.

Edward Gallagher, a former pupil of H. C. S., has arrived at the village, having graduated from St. Joseph's College, Memramcook.

Hon. Judge Wedderburn and Miss Wedderburn, who have spent the winter in St. John, have come to Hampton for the summer.

Mrs. C. T. Wetmore and children, have returned from a visit to Kingston, accompanied by Mr. Wetmore's mother.

On Sunday morning the Presbyterian Church was occupied by Rev. Dr. Burrows of Bermuda. He was a guest of "Stonewall" while here.

On Friday evening last, the pupils of grades nine and ten of H. C. S. entertained the members of the graduating class. The invited guests were the graduates and their parents, the graduates of 1915, the trustees and their wives, and the Hampton School staff.

About six p. m. three hay-carts, well filled with the graduates, proceeded to Elmwood beach, on the Bellefleur. On arriving there a big bonfire was built around which a dainty lunch was enjoyed. About eleven of the merry party started for home in the beautiful moonlight. All seemed to enjoy the evening to the fullest.

Miss Elvina Maher, St. John, visited her cousin, Miss Dorothy Maher over Sunday.

Mrs. Edgar Fairweather had as weekend guests Mrs. G. D. Fairweather, and the Misses Carrie and Grace Fairweather, St. John.

Mrs. Millie Walker of LaGrange, Georgia, and her son, Thomas Walker of Philadelphia, arrived on Wednesday and are guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Crowfoot.

Edward Gallagher, a former pupil of H. C. S., has arrived at the village, having graduated from St. Joseph's College, Memramcook.

Hon. Judge Wedderburn and Miss Wedderburn, who have spent the winter in St. John, have come to Hampton for the summer.

Mrs. C. T. Wetmore and children, have returned from a visit to Kingston, accompanied by Mr. Wetmore's mother.

On Sunday morning the Presbyterian Church was occupied by Rev. Dr. Burrows of Bermuda. He was a guest of "Stonewall" while here.

On Friday evening last, the pupils of grades nine and ten of H. C. S. entertained the members of the graduating class. The invited guests were the graduates and their parents, the graduates of 1915, the trustees and their wives, and the Hampton School staff.

About six p. m. three hay-carts, well filled with the graduates, proceeded to Elmwood beach, on the Bellefleur. On arriving there a big bonfire was built around which a dainty lunch was enjoyed. About eleven of the merry party started for home in the beautiful moonlight. All seemed to enjoy the evening to the fullest.

Miss Elvina Maher, St. John, visited her cousin, Miss Dorothy Maher over Sunday.

Mrs. Edgar Fairweather had as weekend guests Mrs. G. D. Fairweather, and the Misses Carrie and Grace Fairweather, St. John.

Mrs. Millie Walker of LaGrange, Georgia, and her son, Thomas Walker of Philadelphia, arrived on Wednesday and are guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Crowfoot.

Edward Gallagher, a former pupil of H. C. S., has arrived at the village, having graduated from St. Joseph's College, Memramcook.

Hon. Judge Wedderburn and Miss Wedderburn, who have spent the winter in St. John, have come to Hampton for the summer.

Mrs. C. T. Wetmore and children, have returned from a visit to Kingston, accompanied by Mr. Wetmore's mother.

On Sunday morning the Presbyterian Church was occupied by Rev. Dr. Burrows of Bermuda. He was a guest of "Stonewall" while here.

On Friday evening last, the pupils of grades nine and ten of H. C. S. entertained the members of the graduating class. The invited guests were the graduates and their parents, the graduates of 1915, the trustees and their wives, and the Hampton School staff.

About six p. m. three hay-carts, well filled with the graduates, proceeded to Elmwood beach, on the Bellefleur. On arriving there a big bonfire was built around which a dainty lunch was enjoyed. About eleven of the merry party started for home in the beautiful moonlight. All seemed to enjoy the evening to the fullest.

Miss Elvina Maher, St. John, visited her cousin, Miss Dorothy Maher over Sunday.

Mrs. Edgar Fairweather had as weekend guests Mrs. G. D. Fairweather, and the Misses Carrie and Grace Fairweather, St. John.

Mrs. Millie Walker of LaGrange, Georgia, and her son, Thomas Walker of Philadelphia, arrived on Wednesday and are guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Crowfoot.

Edward Gallagher, a former pupil of H. C. S., has arrived at the village, having graduated from St. Joseph's College, Memramcook.

Hon. Judge Wedderburn and Miss Wedderburn, who have spent the winter in St. John, have come to Hampton for the summer.

Mrs. C. T. Wetmore and children, have returned from a visit to Kingston, accompanied by Mr. Wetmore's mother.

On Sunday morning the Presbyterian Church was occupied by Rev. Dr. Burrows of Bermuda. He was a guest of "Stonewall" while here.

On Friday evening last, the pupils of grades nine and ten of H. C. S. entertained the members of the graduating class. The invited guests were the graduates and their parents, the graduates of 1915, the trustees and their wives, and the Hampton School staff.

About six p. m. three hay-carts, well filled with the graduates, proceeded to Elmwood beach, on the Bellefleur. On arriving there a big bonfire was built around which a dainty lunch was enjoyed. About eleven of the merry party started for home in the beautiful moonlight. All seemed to enjoy the evening to the fullest.

Miss Elvina Maher, St. John, visited her cousin, Miss Dorothy Maher over Sunday.

Mrs. Edgar Fairweather had as weekend guests Mrs. G. D. Fairweather, and the Misses Carrie and Grace Fairweather, St. John.

Mrs. Millie Walker of LaGrange, Georgia, and her son, Thomas Walker of Philadelphia, arrived on Wednesday and are guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Crowfoot.

Edward Gallagher, a former pupil of H. C. S., has arrived at the village, having graduated from St. Joseph's College, Memramcook.

Hon. Judge Wedderburn and Miss Wedderburn, who have spent the winter in St. John, have come to Hampton for the summer.

Mrs. C. T. Wetmore and children, have returned from a visit to Kingston, accompanied by Mr. Wetmore's mother.

On Sunday morning the Presbyterian Church was occupied by Rev. Dr. Burrows of Bermuda. He was a guest of "Stonewall" while here.