

sisters of the United States in conducting an official organ for both our National Union and theirs, on such terms as we can mutually agree upon.

5. RESOLVED,—That we seek the aid, counsel and encouragement of all clergymen, pastors and church members, in our work, placing the subject of temperance persistently before them, and affording them every opportunity to array themselves on the side of suffering humanity.

6. RESOLVED,—That the members of this Provincial Union earnestly call upon their fathers, husbands, brothers, sons and friends, who possess the right of suffrage, to exercise this right in the interests of temperance and total prohibition, placing the government of the affairs of our Dominion in the hands of men of integrity, uprightness and sobriety.

7. RESOLVED,—That it is the solemn duty of all school officers, superintendents and teachers of public schools, also of Sunday Schools, to commend the practice of total abstinence from the use of intoxicating liquors and tobacco to their pupils, and to use all means in their power to induce them to abstain.

8. RESOLVED,—That we will appoint a committee to secure, so far as possible, the use of the pure juice of the grape instead of wine at the Lord's table, and also do all in our power to influence others to banish it from their homes; to represent to medical societies the injury done by prescribing alcoholic stimulants as a medicine; to secure the introduction of Dr. Richardson's text book of temperance into schools; to secure temperance lessons every quarter in our Sunday Schools, and to represent our cause before all Conventions or Conferances of christian ministers and church-workers, as far as possible.

9. RESOLVED.—That we recommend the formation of Juvenile Temperance Unions, in connection with the W. C. T. Unions in every city, town and village, and of the introduction of our work into all Sunday Schools.

10. RESOLVED,—That we urge our Auxiliaries to enlist the sympathy and co-operation of the young women, and through them, the young men, by the formation of Young W. C. T. U., whose members shall be pledged to use their influence to induce the gentlemen of their acquaintance to sign the pledge.

11. RESOLVED,—That we recommend the establishment of Coffee houses, Friendly Inns, Reading Rooms, house to house visitation, etc., as greatly assisting and promoting individual temperance work.

12. RESOLVED,—That no person is authorized to speak on behalf of our Unions who cannot present undisputed credentials from our Provincial Union, signed by our President, and countersigned by our Secretaries.

13. RESOLVED,—That we as Christian Temperance women, do, in the sight of God, solemnly pledge ourselves to give time and talent,
