

THE QUEEN'S OWN AT ALDERSHOT

Much has been heard of the long route marches taken by the Canadians in England; here is a picture of the regiment leaving camp, clicking off the miles and liking the job.

A Pioneer acting as postman and collecting letters. A private is putting on a "penny" stamp.

Teaching Tommy Atkins to play baseball.

Canada is proud of the record of her citizen soldiers in England, and also greatly pleased at the kindly reception extended to them, from His Majesty, King George, to the man in the street. But this we know—they will all come back.

Every man his own barber; but no man allowed to put a razor edge on his Q.O.R. moustache.

A firing line awaiting orders.
