Murray wants to 'bring back spirit'

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

will have to shift from that of internal matters to that of out and out conscious effort to serve the students and bring back a spirit that has somehow been lost over the past few years."

with Brian Pryde," Murray said. "I of the SRC. Afterall, in a lot of the feel with out combined back- clubs I was a member of in the ground the students can look forward to a better situation in the working with the people in the future between themselves and club, raising funds, building a club the student union."

On the AFS fee increase defeat of raising their own funds." Murray said, "The AFS referendum came as a bit of a surprise."

increase Murray said, "As in my "president-elect" from taking platform I was not in support of office for a month after the the ten dollar fee rise. I think most election, during which time he is students feel that 45 dollars is advised by the old president: "I more than plenty, and it's high don't think it's fair to the new time that we make the average president. I feel it should be student feel their 45 dollars is well mandatory that whoever is and myself will have to come to new person and shouldn't expect effect at the end of Murray's term. we need." agreement about how to work any financial recompense. The constraints and at the same time do a good job.

When asked about the possibility of budget cut-backs Murray commented, "At the present moment I'm looking at the clubs. I feel clubs with interested students "I'm looking forward to working should become more independent past, half the fun was involved in spirit. They should find more ways

Murray gave his opinions on the new by-laws that Council passed As for the proposed union fee this week which prevents the person must be available to the Senate. They've proven their to want to know where the money spent. In our position now with outgoing president should have a new for three months." Unless worth on Council and they're the is going. They decided."

Runner-up candidates, Steve Whalen and Kevin Garland, both wished the new Student Union President, Jim Murray well in his term. Murray will take office Monday, February 7.

increasing costs and debts, Brian sincere interest in helping out the changed, this new by-law will take type of student representatives "I think organization budgets me support and I hope I can fulfill their expectations as president this term. I feel confident that I can do such a job and at the same time fulfill my platform promises."

The new Comptroller, Brian Pryde, was contacted immediately after being notified of his election. Commenting on the defeat of the student union fee increase, which he advocated during the campaign, he said, "There's going to be a lot of work. It's not going to be an easy job at all now. There's going to be cut-backs all over the place." He added that the AFS increase wouldn't have affected his job, since he would never have seen the money.

Present comptroller, Peter Davidson, said, "I'm not surprised. It just means that organizations that wanted increases next year except that the out-going chair- and Mike Bleakney get into won't get them. The students seem will go down and the Bruns, CHSR On other matters Murray said, "I Murray concluded, "I want to and Handbook etc. will stay within the present financial Orientation Committee is similar was very glad to see Al Patrick thank all the people who've shown steady," he said. Senate, council, valedictory results

By DERWIN GOWAN

Mike Bleakney and Allan Patrick were celebrating at a local beverage room and Chris Nagle was in his room at Victoria House when The Brunswickan contacted them after winning the three Senate seats in last Wednesday's student elections.

"I'm glad I won," said Bleakney. He said he would like to "remedy" the duplication of personnel on Senate committees, he would like to see "more of people you wouldn't expect on these committees," rather than "I look forward to seeing Patrick said he would ask the SRC for with the vote he polled and the "party" which is not a and Bleakney with me and they'll money to send representatives to described it as "a great moral campaign posters because he did Stewart and Dolores Crane. is, at the least, sound and practical."

Nagle thanked UNB students for having "faith in me."

Patrick said he did not put up Defeated candidates were Doug 13 acreation conference at Acadia polled as many votes as they did.

representative cross-section of be a great addition to the student the Canadian Association of victory for the people." He said he Health, Physical Education, and was sorry his opponents only University later this year. 'He Barbara MacKinnon and Gary

CHSR elects new officers

Carni sold-out? By J. DAVID MILLER

If you are reading this and you Aitken Centre ticket sales have haven't bought your Ticket for proved more efficient than in Liverpool yet, then you are previous years according to probably out of luck.

tickets for the more popular purchase them. events go on sale Friday at 11:00 a.m. These include Liverpool, Extraganza and the Ryans Fancy pub at the Aitken Centre. Tickets for Liverpool number approximately 350 and are limited to one per student Winter carnival chairperson Kevin Garland is confident that all events will be sold out. Tickets will be available between 11 and 2 on Saturday at the Sub Info Booth as well as all day Friday. If not sold out tickets can be purchased at the Garland. However, he says the Many tickets for winter carnival real test will be on Friday when events remain unsold, however more students will be present to > Weather conditions permitting students will be required to line up outside the Aitken Centre. Provision will be made for students inside the building if the weather is bad, in which case the doors shall open at 9:30. CP's will be present to supervise.

> Garland stated that comptroller, Brian Pryde and Assistant comptroller, Peter Davidson are managing the budget well. He feels the entire carnival will be financially successful.

SAAC at work

By SHEENAGH MURPHY

There has been a revision in policy of the Student Activity chairperson Allan Patrick, stud-Awards Committee according to Allan Patrick Chairperson.

The committee is formed annually to consider those be appointed. students who have the necessary number of grade points to qualify for an award. Points are received for participation in various extra-curricular activities.

The committee is composed of ents Brent Gilchrist and Albert King, Ted Hudson, a non-voting member and two members yet to of points submitted.

committee the power to use its of the applicant.

not believe in promises. However, Successful Physical Education defeated Andy Adshade by three Ladd ran against him. he did say, "I do promise the representative Brian McKinley votes.

Executive.

President -

Murray 740

Garland 485

Whalen 284

Spoiled 71

students of UNB that I will provide said, "I'll try to represent Phys. Ed. Successful valedictorian candi- candidate Andy Jones was not them, as one of their representa- ad best I could." In particular, he date Brian Forbes was quite elated available for comment.

The annual election meeting for

CHSR was held on February 2,

1977. The members present heard reports from each member of the will be responsible for the future results of the first balloting. The of the station, and Patrick expressed a certain amount of hope for the future. The assembled members heard dozen candidates for the execubrief report. The station is at a tor, News and Public Affairs

Bleakney 426

Nagle 574

Patrick 375

Stewart 287

Spoiled 67

Yes 336

No 1410

Spoiled 38

Total 1746

Total vote 1980

Fee Referendum -

Crone 251

As it stands now he wouldn't recommend the station going off acclaimed by George Stewart. campus. The current membership Director Patrick announced the Comptroller Senate -

Total vote 1508 Physical Education McKinnley 34 AFS referencum

Yes 692 No 863 Spoiled 42 Total vote 905

Total Vote - 23%

Valedictorian -

MacKinnon 83

Forbes 172

Ladd 40

Total 295

Pryde 1002

Stewart 386

Spoiled 150

Total vote 1438

Physical Education

McKinley 34

Adshade 31

Total vote 66

Spoiled 1

The committee intends to consult various sources in order to Revisions this year give the achieve a more conclusive picture own "discretion", without their Patrick said the question of depending wholly on the number whether or not to keep the an award is February 20.

Computer Science Jones 35 Steeves 11 Spoiled 4 Total vote 50

Activity Awards in existence was broached in a council meeting. As the council voted affirmatively, Patrick says "we'll have to make the best of it".

The deadline for applications for positions of News and Public Attairs Director and Program

Director were tied. On the first ballot - Directorelection speeches from about a Mathew Penny, Station Manager Michael Hughson, and Business Director Patrick oullined his tive positions of Station Director, Manager - Peter Steele. When the feelings about the year in a fairly Station Manager, Program Direc- results of the second ballot were announced John Geary became turning point according to Patrick. Director and Business Manager. Program Director and Mike Finck The position of Chief Engineer was became News and Public Affairs Director for 1977-78.

Director-elect Penny was vo pleased with the results. The meeting adjourned at 9 p.m. Director Patrick said of the results "All I can say is that I hope to maintain contact with the executive in an advisory capacity in the hopes that they will be able to continue where I left off."

NOTICE: Human Rights Commission In reference to the word 'nigger' in Jan. 14 issue, it was a soc iological term and did not cast aspirations on any particular race.

Sorry for the misunderstanding.

Ursula Wawe Boy Hills

PORIAL BOARD

EATURES

PHOTO

on Mareland

e Patriquen

SING MANAGER

IGN & LAYOUT

SS MANAGER

ie McCavour

THIS WEEK

ıy Wastmon

ditor if they are not i. THE BRU udent's Represent-or the Administra