

C 55946

of the North, dwarfs with respect to Government Improvements, into comparative insignificance. I believe Ottawa outrivals Washington, not in size, or in wealth, but in natural beauty and opportunity of wise and wide development, and I think we should remember this, as we look to Canada's future.

Since 1924 Congress has contributed the fixed sum of $9,000,000 towards the upkeep of Washington, the non-voting taxpayers of the city contribute the rest. We are proposing an annual expenditure on the part of parliament for the upkeep of our capital of $.

W.L. Mackenzie King Papers
Memoranda & Notes

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA