

children must ordinarily be resident in the Union with their parent at the time of application. Children who are not minors cannot be included in a parent's certificate. If they desire to be naturalized, they must make application on their own behalf.

- (d) Persons naturalized under laws in force in the Union prior to the passing of Act No. 18 of 1926, who do not apply for a certificate under the last-mentioned Act, retain their existing rights and privileges.

Chapter I of Act No. 18 of 1926 defines what persons shall in the Union be deemed to be natural-born British subjects and follows the lines of Part I of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914 (4 and 5 Geo. Ch. 17).

- (1) It provides that the following shall in the Union be deemed to be natural-born British subjects, namely :-

- (a) Any person born within His Majesty's Dominions and allegiance; and
- (b) Any persons born out of His Majesty's Dominions whose father was at the date of that person's birth, a British subject, and who fulfils any of the following conditions, that is to say, if either --
