Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 21st instant enclosing two letters from Father Paquette, Principal of the Duck Lake Boarding school in the first of which he asks for a grant of $250.00 for general repairs and the erection of a root-house and ice-house, and in the second requests that the Department pay the cost of installation of the acetylene gas plant in use at the institution.

In reply I beg to say that these matters are receiving consideration.
