Ottawa, 11th December, 1914.

Sir,-

I am in receipt of your letter of the 30th ultimo, in which you make request on behalf of Magloire, No. 127 Moosomin's Band, for arrears of interest money, I beg to refer you to the Department's letter of the 24th November in which it was pointed out that there is a shortage of funds in connection with the Interest Account of Moosomin's Band. It is not possible at the present time to pay the arrears of interest money due this man, but when money is available, payment will be made. You should explain the situation to the Indian.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

J. A. Rowland, Esq.,
Indian Agent,
Battleford, Sask.
